Naples, September 3.

HIS Britannick Majesty's Frigate the Thames, Capt. Elliott, put into this Port on Wednesday last, and on Saturday sailed for Constantinople.

Florence, September 7. The Great Duke and Dutchess are expected at Bologna as To-morrow, where, it is supposed, their Royal Highnesses will only lie one Night: All the Great Officers of the Court and four Pages are gone thither; and Marshal Botta is set out this Morning. Detachments of the Garde Noble, and of the Dragoons, are placed at Pietra-Mala, a Place near the Confines, where their Royal Highnesses are to dine, and from whence they will proceed directly to Pratolino, a Villa of the Great Duke, about six Miles distant from Florence. All publick Rejoicings are to be deferred for some Months. The particular Orders for the Mourning will be published after the Great Duke's Arrival.

Florence, September 14. The Great Duke and Dutchess arrived late on Wednesday Morning at Pratolino, about six Miles Distance from hence, and came into the Town Yesterday Morning at Eight o'Clock. Their Royal Highnesses were conducted to their Palace amidst the Acclamations of many Thousands of People.

Venice, September 11. On the 4th Instant the Great Duke and Dutchess of Tuscany passed through the Venetian State on their Journey to Florence, and were escorted by a Party of Horse. They stopped several Hours at Castel Nuovo, and were pleased to accept of a Dinner that was provided for them. The Great Duke sent for the Podesta of Verona, and, in the most gracious Manner, obliged his Excellency, and two of the principal Venetian Officers, to sit down at Table with their Royal and most Serene Highnesses, who chose to travel in the most private Way upon account of the Labour of the Emperor. The Great Duke made the Podesta Present of a Gold Chain, with the Empress Queen's Picture affixed to it; and gave Money to the Troops; and Snuff boxes to two Venetian Couriers that attended.

Vienna, September 14. On Wednesday last all the Ambassadors here had private Audiences of the present Emperor, to compliment him upon his Accession to the Imperial Throne.

Madrid, September 16. Two Spanish Ships of War, the Achilles, and Altea, arrived lately at Cadiz from New Spain, and have brought above two Millions of Dollars in Gold and Silver, besides many valuable Effects; about one Half of the Money is for the Catholick King's Account; and the Remainder for the Commerce.

Whitehall, September 28.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honorable William Viscount Folkestone, Baron of Longford, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, the Dignities of a Baron and Earl of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the Name, Style, and Title of Baron Pleydell-Bouverie, of Colshill, in the County of Berks, and Earl of the County of Radnor, in the Principality of Wales; And, in Default of such Issue, the said Dignity of Earl of the County of Radnor, to the Heirs Male, lawfully begotten, of Jacob Viscount Folkestone, deceased.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Richard Cuff, Doctor in Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Canon of Christ Church, in the University of Oxford, in the Room of Doctor John Nicoll, deceased.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Bell, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Prebend of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster, in the Room of Doctor John Nicoll, deceased.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, September 27, 1765.
