THE TRIUMVIRATE: Or,
The Authentic Memoirs of A. B. and C.

Printed for W. Johnston in Ludgate-Street.

WHereas a Gentleman left Lime-Street, London, on Saturday the 5th of October, 1765; and left a Lady who is under the greatest Distress for him, and has taken this Method of acquainting him, that if he will write to her, and let her know where she may direct to him, he may depend on the utmost Secrecy, and it is in her Power to communicate something to him which will be to his Advantage, and, if he thinks proper, will come to him to any Part of the World.

WHereas Frazer Honeywood, late of Hampstead, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, participate in, that Legacy, or Donation: Such Distribution to be made amongst such of his Relations as aforesaid, at such respective Time, or Times, and in such Manner, and Form, and in such Proportions, or Disproportions, as his said Executors, or the Survivors, or Survivor, of them, his Executors, or Administrators, should in his, or their, own Discretions, or Discretion, judge to be most proper. And the said Testator, by his said Codicil, declared, that he did not mean to restrain, or confine, the said Application, and Distribution, to be made, to and amongst his Relations, of any Particular Degree of Kindred; but did thereby authorise his said Executors to pay, apply, and distribute the same, to and amongst any Persons, whom they should find to be proper Objects of such Application and Distribution; whether any such Persons should be related to him in the First, Second, or Third, or in the Fourth,
