The Worshipful Company of Clock-makers of the City of London do hereby give Notice,

THAT by an Act of Common-Council made on the 15th Day of October, 1765, by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled; It is enacted, that from and after the 25th Day of December, 1765, every Person not being then Free of the City of London, who shall use or exercise the Art or Mystery of Clockmaking within the said City or Liberties thereof, shall take upon himself the Freedom of the said Company of Clock-makers; and that no Person exercising the said Art of Clockmaking shall, after the said 25th Day of December, be admitted by the Chamberlain into the Freedom of the said City, of or in any other Company. And it is further enacted, that if any Person (not already Free of the said City) shall, after the said 25th Day of December, use or exercise the Art or Mystery of Clockmaking within the said City or Liberties thereof, not being Free of the said Company of Clockmakers, then every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for every such Offence. And the said Company do hereby give further Notice, that they are determined to proceed against all Persons who shall offend against the said Act of Common-Council.

Jasper Taylor, Clerk.

By the KING's Patent.

HIS Majesty having been graciously pleased to grant His ROYAL LETTERS PATENT unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Antivenereal Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the Human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Public, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, and by Mr. Slack, Printer, in Newcastle upon Tyne, in Tin Boxes at 3 s. or 6 s. each. The Boxes are sealed with the Patentee's Arms; viz. a Marten on a Rock, with the Words BY THE KING's PATENT round the Seal. With each Box of the Electuary is given, gratis, a Book of plain Instructions, enabling every Patient to be his own Physician.

Notice is hereby given, that William Virgoe, late of the George Inn in Long Acre in St. Martin in the Fields in the County of Middlesex, but now of the City and County of Canterbury, Labourer, was, on Tuesday the 10th Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1765, between the Hours of Two and half an Hour after Three, but, as near as he can recollect, a Quarter before Three, stopped in the Highway between Dartford and Greenhithe, in the Parish of Swancomb in the Hundred of Axton in the County of Kent, and carried by Two Men into a Wood adjoining to the Highway there, and robbed by the said Two Persons in the said Wood, one of them being a Man of about Five Feet Seven Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion and black Hair, about Forty Years of Age, dressed in an old red Seaman's Jacket, and a strong well-set Man; the other being about Five Feet Five Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion, wore a red Cap, an old blue Jacket, and a Square-built Man, about Twenty-six Years old; which said Two Men took from him the said William Virgoe Fifty-two Pounds, Fifteen Shillings and Three Pence in Guineas and Half Guineas, in a Green Silk Purse, and the Quarter of a Guinea in his Pocket.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of James M'Gowen, late of Long Lane, London, Hair-Merchant, and Dealer in Linnen and Cloths, deceased, are to come before William Graves, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn Chancery Lane, London, and prove their respective Debts.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors and Legatees of John Manning, formerly of High Hall in the Parish of Blymhill in the County of Stafford, Gentleman, deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their respective Demands before Edward Montagu, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
