

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 28, to Tuesday December 31, 1765.

St. James's, December 31.

ON Sunday last, between Three and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, died, at his House in Leicester-Square, his Royal Highness Prince Frederick-William, His Majesty's youngest Brother, to the great Grief of their Majesties, and all the Royal Family.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 31, 1765.

Orders for the Court's going into Mourning on Sunday next the 5th of January, for his late Royal Highness Prince Frederick-William, His Majesty's youngest Brother, viz.

The Ladies to wear black Silk, plain Mullin or Long Lawn, Crape or Love Hoods, black glazed Gloves, black Paper Fans, and black Silk Shoes.

Undrefs, Black or Grey unwatered Tabbies, The Men to wear black Cloth without Buttons on the Sleeves or Pockets, plain Mullin or Long Lawn Cravats and Weepers, Crape Hatbands, and black Swords and Buckles.

Undrefs, Dark Grey Frocks.

The Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for his late Royal Highness Prince Frederick-William.

IN Pursuance of His Majesty's Commands, These are to give public Notice, that it is expected, that upon the present Occasion of the Death of his late Royal Highness Prince Frederick-William, all Persons do put themselves into decent Mourning; the said Mourning to begin on Sunday next the 5th of January.

31 Dec. 1765. SCARBROUGH, M.

Lisbon, December 4. Their most Faithful Majesties and the Court put on Mourning on Monday last for his late Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, which is to continue for 15 Days.

[ Price Three-pence. ]

The Count de Welsperg, Minister from his Imperial Majesty, had his Audience of Leave on Saturday, and returns this Week through Spain to Vienna.

Lord Hope, Son to the Earl of Hopetoun, arrived here on Sunday from Bristol.

His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Lark, Capt. Thompson, who came lately from Newfoundland, failed Yesterday for England.

Last Friday between 30 and 40 Sail of Merchant Ships, under Convoy of two of his most Faithful Majesty's Ships put to Sea for the different Settlements in the Brazils and the Coast of Africa.

Berlin, December 21. Last Night the Prince Royal of Prussia, with the Princess his Consort, came to Town from Potzdam; and this Morning his Majesty, accompanied by his Brother Prince Henry, and a numerous Retinue, arrived here likewise from Potzdam.

St. James's, December 26, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, early on Saturday Morning the 15th of this Instant December, an incendiary Letter was found at the Door of the House of Henry Morley, of Ely in the County of Cambridge, Esq; directed as hereunder, and containing the Words and Letters following, viz.

" For M<sup>r</sup> Moley "

" Gemman this Coms to let you know that We
" will Born your Houesh down As for Drag We
" will Shot him the forst ouptunety As for Wodte-
" ton We will pysen him for that ma be don and
" shall the forst ouptuny and you shall All far a like
" for if We cant Shot you We can do that and
" will for We most be Starued to Deth for you
" are as bad as Hared that Slad All the Children
" for you will Starue them to Deth for with Torn-
" pike and HigWays We cant liue so will do som
" Morder and fat fier to your Houses and you ma
" Dedpan apon it for We will do it if it be a
" Year Hans if you go on as you do you ma De-
" pans apon it and as it is sant to you Sor I will
" haue let all the Raft know for it shall be don if
" God dont Torn your Harts so let this B A
" Woren to you "

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said incendiary

