HIS Majesty, who has of late been in such a Situation; that the Issue of his Disorder was greatly apprehended would be fatal, has now evident Tokens of an Alteration for the better. He has still some Fever, but the Thrush is almost gone, and no longer hinders him either from swallowing, or speaking distinctly: His Majesty sleeps better, and has lately had a remarkable Perspiration, together with a Relaxation of his Retention of Urine; and the Water, which was beginning again to increase in his Body, is quite gone off.

WHEREAS George Minchin, late a Military Captain in the Service of the Honourable East India Company at Bengal in the East Indies, (where he died in the Month of January 1758) in a Paper, which imports to be a Codicil to his Will, mentioned his having sent his Will to Europe; and it being apprehended that such Will was sent, under Cover, addressed to Mess. Colley and Nixon, or Mr. John Barton, Merchants, in London, (who were named Executors by the said Codicil) or to some one of the said George Minchin's Relations in Ireland, (where he had several Relations of his own Name:) But as no such Will hath ever been received by the Executors named in the said Codicil, or any of the said George Minchin's Relations; and there being a Suit depending in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery concerning the Distribution of the said George Minchin's Estate; This is therefore to give Notice, that if any Person has got the said Will, or any Letter or Pacquet directed to the said Mess. Colley and Nixon, Mr. John Barton, or to any Person of the Name of Minchin, supposed to have been sent to Europe by the said George Minchin, from Bengal, in which such Will can probably be contained, and will produce and deliver the same at the Office of Richard Edwards, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, in Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London, on or before the 16th Day of April next, such Person shall be rewarded with the Sum of Ten Guineas; and if any Person will give Intelligence of such Will, (so that the same may be produced in order to its being proved) to the said Richard Edwards, on or before the Day aforesaid, upon the said Will being produced or left with the said Master Edwards, such Person so discovering the same shall be paid the like Sum of Ten Guineas,
