

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 1, to Tuesday February 4, 1766.

Dantzic, January 15.

Baron Osten, late the Danish Envoy at the Court of Petersburg, arrived here some Days ago from that City, in his Way to Copenhagen.

Berlin, January 18. Last Saturday, being the Birth-day of Prince Henry, the King of Prussia's Brother, his Royal Highness received, in the Morning, from the Nobility and Foreign Ministers here, the Compliments usual on this Occasion. In the Evening the Queen of Prussia gave a most magnificent Supper: The Feast ended with a Ball, which lasted till early next Morning. Last Night his Majesty, who is in perfect Health, supped with his Brother Prince Henry, in his Royal Highness's new Palace.

Copenhagen, January 18. M. de Revenflau, late Governor to his Majesty, is appointed Grand Chamberlain, which has been vacant many Years.

St. James's, February 3, 1766.

Whereas I have received Information from his Excellency the Earl of Hertford, His Majesty's Lieutenant General and General Governor of the Kingdom of Ireland, That Part of the Cargo and Treasure of the Ship Earl of Sandwich, whereof John Cochran was late Commander, (who in his Voyage in her, from Teneriff to London, was, together with Captain Glas, his Wife and Daughter, Passengers, and some others belonging to the said Ship, barbarously murdered by Part of the Crew thereof) having been found on the Coast of Ireland, is now properly secured in that Kingdom by his Excellency's Order; I give this Publick Notice thereof, to the End, that all Persons concerned in the Treasure and Cargo of the said Ship, so found and secured as abovementioned, may, without Loss of Time, authorize proper Persons to lay in their Claims, in the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland's Chief Secretary's Office in Dublin Castle, and agree upon a Method for settling and ascertaining their respective Properties and Proportions.

H. S. CONWAY.

St. James's, February 4, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the 10th of January last, in the Night, a Cask of Cochineal, marked I.R. N^o 1. was stolen out of the Ship Friendship, William Collins, Commander, from Cadiz, then lying in the River Thames, near Cherry Garden Stairs, by Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Stealing the said Cask of Cochineal out of the said Ship, is, hereby, pleased to promise

His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, who shall discover his Accomplices in the said Fact, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, I William Collins, Commander of the said Ship Friendship, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid, by me, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Wm. Collins.

St. James's, January 3, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Draft has been passed on the Bank, under the Signature of Sir Joshua Van Neck and Co. for 4500 l. dated the 21st of October last, payable to the Honorable Thomas Walpole, Esq; and the said Draft has been exchanged for sundry Bank Notes, payable to the aforementioned Thomas Walpole, which have been paid, in Cash, on or about the 28th, 29th, and 30th of the said Month; and that there is Reason to suspect that the said Draft was forged:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and Forging the said Draft, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any One of them, (except the Person who actually signed the said Draft) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England do also promise a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by the Cashiers of the Bank upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, February 3, 1766.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 5th of March next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to receive Tenders, in Writing, (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to contract for furnishing Sea Provisions to such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as may touch at Londonderry and Loughswilly in Ireland, and be in Want thereof; also Fresh Beef on a separate Contract.

The Conditions of the Contracts may be seen at the Secretary's Office at this Office, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Londonderry.
