

order to allot the Lands to the several Proprietors of the said Fields, and to inclose the same; which Survey and Plan was kept at the House of William Craft at Wellingborough: But, on Tuesday the 21st of January last between the Hours of One and Six in the Morning, Mr. Craft's House was broke open, and the said Plan and all the Field Books of the said Survey were stolen out of the said House by some Persons unknown, which it is apprehended will retard the said Allotments and Inclosure for several Months, and occasion a Year's Loss of the Improvement intended by the said Inclosure, to the very great Damage of the Proprietors of the said Fields.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Burglary and Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GRAFTON.

And, as a further Encouragement, any Person or Persons concerned, or not concerned, in committing the said Burglary and Felony (except a principal Offender) who shall make a Discovery, by which any Offender or Offenders may be brought to Justice, shall be paid the Sum of One Hundred Pounds by William Bateman, of Wellingborough, immediately upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

 Member for the City.

St. James's, February 3, 1766.

Whereas I have received Information from his Excellency the Earl of Hertford, His Majesty's Lieutenant General and General Governor of the Kingdom of Ireland, That Part of the Cargo and Treasure of the Ship Earl of Sandwich, whereof John Cochran was late Commander, (who in his Voyage in her, from Teneriff to London, was, together with Captain Glas, his Wife and Daugbter, Passengers, and some others belonging to the said Ship, barbarously murdered by Part of the Crew thereof) having been found on the Coast of Ireland, is now properly secured in that Kingdom by his Excellency's Order; I give this Publick Notice thereof, to the End, that all Persons concerned in the Treasure and Cargo of the said Ship, so found and secured as above-mentioned, may, without Loss of Time, authorize proper Persons to lay in their Claims, in the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland's Chief Secretary's Office in Dublin Castle, and agree upon a Method for settling and ascertaining their respective Properties and Proportions.

St. James's, February 4, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the 10th of January last, in the Night, a Cask of Cochineal, marked IR. N^o 1. was stolen out of the Ship Friendship, William Collins, Commander, from Cadiz, then lying in the River Thames, near Cherry Garden Stairs, by Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Stealing the said Cask of Cochineal out of the said Ship, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, who shall discover his Accomplices in the said Fact, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, I William Collins, Commander of the said Ship Friendship, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid, by me, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Wm. Collins.

St. James's, January 3, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Draft has been passed on the Bank, under the Signature of Sir Joshua Van Neck and Co. for 4500 l. dated the 21st of October last, payable to the Honorable Thomas Walpole, Esq; and the said Draft has been exchanged for sundry Bank Notes, payable to the aforesaid Thomas Walpole, which have been paid, in Cash, on or about the 28th, 29th, and 30th of the said Month; and that there is Reason to suspect that the said Draft was forged:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and Forging the said Draft, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any One of them, (except the Person who actually signed the said Draft) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England do also promise a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by the Cashiers of the Bank upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.
