Lisbon, March 1.

WE have had the coldest Winter ever known in Portugal: The Frost set in at Christmas, and lasted about Six Weeks; since that Time we have had mild open Weather, with constant Rain; this gives us the Prospect of a plentiful Year.

The Fleet from the Rio de Janeiro, which consisted of Eight and Twenty Merchant Ships, and one East-India Ship from Goa, under Convooy of a Man of War, sailed from the Rio de Janeiro the 18th of November. Two of the Merchantmen, soon after they sailed, sprung a Leak, and put back: The Man of War, with the Indiaman, and Two and Twenty Merchant Ships, after a Passage of a Hundred Days, arrived here on Wednesday the 26th of February, and the other Four being bound for Oporto, proceeded on their Voyage to that Port.

Lisbon, March 5. The Hampden and King George Packets arrived here on Monday last, in Nine Days from Falmouth.

Their most Faithful Majesties and the Royal Family returned from Salvateria on Monday Morning the 3d Instant, and the next Day their Majesties received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers upon this Occasion.

The Vulture Sloop, Captain Robinson, is arrived from Gibraltar.

Florence, March 8. By the last Post the Great Duke received Notice from Vienna, that the Empress had given him the Military Rank of Marshal, which has afforded him great Pleasure.

It having been usual for the different Bodies of Foreign Merchants settled at Leghorn to shew their Respect to the Sovereigns of this Dutchy the first Time they appeared there, the English Merchants have asked and obtained Leave of the Great Duke to make a Diversion called a Calcio, when his Royal Highness goes there this Spring: The other Nations have followed their Example, and each is to make some Publick Shew on that Occasion.

Whitehall, March 25.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable John Earl Delawarr, Major-General of His Majesty's Forces, to be Captain and Colonel of the First Troop of Horse Guards, in the Room of John Earl Delawarr, deceased.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Sir John Griffin Griffin, Knight of the Bath, Lieutenant-General of His Majesty's Forces, to be Captain and Colonel of the First Troop of Horse Grenadier Guards, in the Room of the Right Honourable John Earl Delawarr.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable Charles Earl Cornwallis to be Colonel of the Thirty-third Regiment of Foot, and likewise to be Captain of a Company in the said Regiment, in the Room of Sir John Griffin Griffin, Knight of the Bath.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 24, 1766.

Orders for the Court's going out of Mourning on Sunday next the 30th Instant, for his late Royal Highness Prince Frederick-William, His Majesty's youngest Brother; also for the late King of Denmark; and for Stanislaus late King of Poland, and Duke of Lorrain and Bar.

Whitehall, March 22, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That Catharine Ogilvie, who was convicted at Edinburgh of Incest and poisoning her Husband, but her Sentence reversed on Account of her Pregnancy, and who, about Three Weeks ago, was delivered of a Child in Prison, and was to have received Sentence of Death on Monday the 17th instant, had made her Escape out of Prison on Saturday the 15th instant, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening; That her Escape was not discovered or made known to the Magistrates till the next Day between One and Two in the Afternoon, when a Search was immediately made through the City, and a Messenger dispatched to endeavour to trace, and, if possible, overtake her on the London Road; but all the Intelligence he could get was, That a young Gentleman, very thin and sickly, muffled up in a Great Coat, and attended by a Servant, had passed through Huddington on Saturday at Midnight, and had passed on, with four Horses, Day and Night, from Stage to Stage, towards London; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing her to Justice, is graciously pleased to order a Reward of One Hundred Guineas to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend her; to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

GRAFTON.

And the Magistrates of Edinburgh have published a Reward of One Hundred Guineas to any Person who shall apprehend the said Catharine Ogilvie.

St. James's, February 3, 1766.

Whereas I have received Information from his Excellency the Earl of Hertford, His Majesty's Lieutenant General and General Governor of the Kingdom of Ireland, That Part of the Cargo and Treasure of the Ship Earl of Sandwich, whereof John Cochran was late Commander, (who in his Voyage in her, from Tenerife to London, was, together with Captain Glass, his Wife and Daughter, Passengers, and some others belonging to the said Ship, barbarously murdered by Part of
