(Being the most complete Treatise on the Subject ever published in any Language)

A Methodical Synopsis of MINERAL WATERS. (Being a Work of Twenty one Years.)

Comprehending above 260 of the most celebrated Medicinal Waters, both cold and hot, of Great-Britain, Ireland, France, Germany, and Italy, besides many other Parts of the World: Wherein the several impregnating Minerals being previously described, and their Characteristics investigated, each Water is reduced to its proper Genus; and, besides the particular Analysis, the Virtues, Uses, and Abuses of the Waters are described, in a Method entirely new; with a far more distinct and ample Account of the Sulphurous, Vitriolic, and Copper Waters, than has been published. Interpersed with Tables tending to throw Light upon this intricate Subject: And Abstracts of the principal Authors who have treated on Mineral Waters; and the Accounts of Waters, dispersed in the Acts of the several learned Societies in Europe, are collected and properly digested.
