From Tuesday August 5, to Saturday August 9, 1766.

St. James's, August 9.

THE following Address of the Governor and Council of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of Newcastle, Kent, and Suffex on Delaware, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas and Richard Penn, Esqrs. being introduced by the Earl of Shelburne, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Governor and Council of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of Newcastle, Kent, and Suffex on Delaware.

WE your Majesty's Faithful Subjects, the Governor and Council of the Province and Counties aforesaid, with the most profound Submission, beg Leave to approach the Throne on an Occasion the most affecting and interesting to us and all your other American Subjects.

Permit us, Royal Sir, with Hearts overflowing with Gratitude, humbly to acknowledge the manifold Instances of your paternal Tenderness and Affection extended to your Subjects in this distant Part of your Empire; and, in a more especial Manner, to express our lively Sense of your Majesty's unbounded Goodness, and the disinterested Benevolence of your Parliament, in the late Repeal of the Act imposing certain Stamp Duties in your Colonies.

We rejoice in this Opportunity of declaring that your Majesty's Administration hath been distinguished by the strictest Regard to Justice and an unwearied Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People: But when we reflect on this last signal Instance of your Majesty's exalted Virtue, that you have been graciously pleased to hearken to the Cries of your Subjects, and to stretch forth your Royal Hand to their Relief, notwithstanding many of them (blinded by a misguided Zeal) have committed Acts injurious to your Government, we are impressed with the highest Reverence for your great Magnanimity and princely Condescension.

We trust that your Majesty cannot fail to receive the warmest Returns of Gratitude and Loyalty from all your Subjects.—For ourselves, we humbly beseech your Majesty to accept of our unfeigned Assurances, that our Hearts are firmly attached to your sacred Person and Government, our Affection to our Mother Country inviolable, and our Lives and Fortunes entirely devoted to your Majesty's Service.

St. James's, August 9.

The following Addresses having been delivered to the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by his Lordship presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Representatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subject, the Representatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, under a deep Sense of your Majesty's great Condescension and Justice, beg Leave to render to your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your most gracious Assent to the Act repealing the Law granting certain Stamp Duties in America. The Paternal Concern for the Welfare and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Subjects, however remote, which your Majesty has demonstrated on this very important Occasion, cannot fail of fixing in the Hearts of the good People of this Province, the most inviolable Affection and Loyalty to your Royal Person and Government, and exciting in its sincerest Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majesty on the Throne of those extensive Dominions, whose Happiness and Glory have been the invariable Objects of your Care and Attention.

The Assurance which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to give us of your Approbation of the civil Behaviour of the Province of Pennsylvania amidst the troublous and distracting War which have agitated the other Colonies, fills our Breasts with Sentiments of the most respectful Gratitude, and demands our warmest Thanks. This Instance of your Majesty's Condescension and Goodness must engage the People we represent, to continue to recommend themselves still further by their dutiful Behaviour, to your Royal Favour and Protection.

We humbly entreat your Majesty will further permit us to embrace this Opportunity of expressing the high Sense we entertain of the Justice and Tenderness of your Parliament, who, ready to hear and consider the Grievances of your Majesty's Subject, have, upon a just Representation of the unhappy Circumstances of your Colonies, manifested their good Dispositions and Lenity to us in our late distressed Situation.

Fully sensible how much the Happiness of your People depends on a perfect Harmony and Connection between Great Britain and her Colonies, we assure your Majesty, that no Care or Endeavours shall be wanting, on our Part, to promote and establish that Union of Affections and Interest, which is so essential to the Welfare of both, and to preserve that Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government,
