St. James's, September 6.

THE following Address of the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of South Carolina, has been presented to the King by Charles Garth, Esq; Agent for the said Province, who had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of South Carolina.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Representatives of the Freemen in this your Province, animated with the utmost Duty and Loyalty, and impressed with the deepest Respect and Gratitude to your most Sacred Majesty, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, by offering our sincerest Thanks for your Majesty's great Goodness and Condescension in hearing the Petitions of your American Subjects, and graciously relieving them by the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, from the greatest Distress and most dismal Apprehensions.

By this gracious Measure your Majesty has clearly manifested that most Paternal Affection to all your People, and that impartial Care to preserve all their Rights, which have ever peculiarly distinguished the Auspicious Reign of your Majesty, and those of your Royal Progenitors, the Illustrious Patrons of Liberty and Protectors of Europe.

Were it possible that any Thing could add to the Loyalty of a People always devoted to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, this recent Instance of your Royal Goodness must have had that Effect.

That your Majesty and your Royal Progeny may ever continue to reign the glorious and beloved Kings of a free, happy, and grateful People, is our most ardent Prayer; and for the Preservation of this inestimable Blessing to ourselves and Posterity, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we, at all Times, will be ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes.

In the Common House of Assembly the 27th Day of June, 1766. P. Manigault, Speaker.

By Order of the House,

The following Address of the Governor and Company of the English Colony of Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantations in New-England in America, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Governor and Company of the English Colony of Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantations in New-England in America.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor and Company of the English Colony of Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantations in New-England in America, in General Assembly convened, beg Leave gratefully to acknowledge the Share we have in the Blessings of your Majesty's mild, and just Government; and to return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for the late Instance of your Paternal Regard for all your Subjects, however distant, in giving your Royal Assent to the Bill for repealing the Act of Parliament imposing Stamp Duties upon the Inhabitants of the British Colonies in America.

It was with the deepest Concern we reflected upon the fatal Consequences we conceived would inevitably attend the Operation of that Act, not only to your Majesty's loyal Subjects in America, but also to those in Great-Britain: And it is with equal Joy and Gratitude, that we find an Act so destructive, in our humble Opinions, to the Interests of both Countries, repealed.

Upon this Occasion, which will render the Name of your Majesty for ever dear to the British Colonies in America, we also beg Leave to express the grateful Sentiments we entertain of the Lenity, the Moderation, and Magnanimity so conspicuous in the Two Houses of Parliament; and the firm Reliance we place in the Wisdom and Justice of the Legislature of Great-Britain, that, uninfluenced by any partial Considerations, their Councils will ever be directed for the Benefit of all the British Dominions.

By every Motive of Duty and Affection, by the sacred Ties of Gratitude and Conscience, devoted devoted to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government; possessed with the sincerest Veneration for the British Constitution; and convinced that our Connections with and Dependence upon Great-Britain, are the only sure Foundations of our Happiness; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, That it shall be our Study to cultivate the Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, of due Regard and Submission to that August Body the British Parliament, of Friendship and filial Affection to Great-Britain; and to promote the true Interest and Felicity of all your Majesty's Subjects.

[ Price Three-Pence. ]

That your Majesty may long, very long, sway the Scepter of Great Britain with Glory and Renown, and continue to be considered as the Father of your People by Millions of Faithful Subjects throughout the British Empire; and that there may never be wanting one of your illustrious House to transmit, to the latest Possibility, the blessings of your Majesty's Auspicious Reign, are the sincere Wishes and ardent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

*The Governor and Company of the English
Colony of Rhode Island, and Providence Plantations.*
