WOOLLEN MANUFACTORY, Sept. 13, 1766.

THIS Day was held a General Meeting of the Woolstaplers and Subscribers to the Fund for the Prosecution of Persons for the false Winding of Wool, when a State of the Accounts was laid before them; and, though many Prosecutions have been carried on with Success, yet there appeared to be a considerable Balance in the Hands of the Treasurers, which it was unanimously agreed should be applied in further Aid of the said Scheme: Therefore all Persons, who shall find themselves aggrieved by the false Winding of Wool, on Application to Mess. Hills and Ewer, in Rotherhithe, will have their Complaints communicated to the Committee for the Management of such Prosecutions, and proper Steps will be taken for obtaining Redress.
