The London

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 7, to Saturday October 11, 1766.

St. James's, October 8.

HIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, (Sir Robert Ladbroke, Knt. Locum Tenens) Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London; in Common Council affembled, waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford, James Eyre, Esq; the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

West Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal
Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council affembled, with the most zealous Ardour and Affection embrace the earliest Opportunity of approaching the Throne of the best of Princes, with our joyful Congratulations on every Event pleafing to your Majesty and salutary to your Kingdoms.

The fase Delivery of the Queen, a Princess endeared to your Majesty and the whole Nation by every Royal and virtuous Accomplishment, fills our Hearts with the utmost Thankfulness to Divine Providence.

An Increase of your Majesty's August Family by the Birth of a Princess Royal, cannot fail of diffusing universal Joy amongst all your faithful Subjects, as it farther secures to them and their Posterity a long Continuance of those inestimable Blessings which they have hitherto enjoyed under the Protection of your Majesty's illustrious House.

The auspicious Marriage of your Majesty's Royal Sister, the Princess Caroline Matilda, with that great Potentate the King of Denmark, (on which we beg Leave to felicitate your Majeffy) must afford the most interesting Satisfaction, not only to us and all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, but also to every Protestant Power in Europe.

Permit us, Royal Sir! to affure you, That your faithful Citizens of London are ever ready to evince to all the World, that their Hearts and Affections are fincere Oblations of Gratitude to your Majesty for your constant paternal Care, and especially for the recent Instance of your tender Attention to the Necessities of your

> Signed by Order of Court, James Hodges.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer:

 $Y^{OUR}$  loyal and affectionate Professions upon the happy Events of My Queen's safe Delivery, and the Marriage of My Sister to My very good Ally the King of Denmark, cannot but be most acceptable to Me.

It is with Pleasure that I see the just Sense which the City of London entertains of those Measures, which the Necessity of the Occasion obliged Me to take for the Relief of My People; and I hope they will have the desired Effect of quieting Mens Minds, and removing the Distresses which seemed daily to increase.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Robert Darling and James Esdail, Esqrs. the Sheriffs of the City of London.

St. James's, October 11.

THE PARTY OF

· 1996年, 1986年, 1986年,

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Gloucester, has been presented to the King by Lord Berkeley: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

E vour Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Gloucester, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts in-flamed with Gratitude, for your Majesty's most gracious and seasonable Interposition to the Distresses of your People, by your Royal Proclamations, forbidding the Exportation of Wheat, and putting a Step to the Distillery.

Penetrated by this fresh Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care and ever watchful Attention to our Weisare and Prosperity, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we esteem it our unrivalled Happiness and Glory to be the Subjects of a Monarch, under whose Government a real Principle of Submission is the best Proof of our Love of Liberty, and the best Security for its Continuance; a Monarch in whose Hands Prerogative may justly be esteemed the Gist of Heaven, directed only to the glorious Purpole of succouring and bleffing Mankind.

October 2, 1766.

The following Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Clergy, Merchants, Manusacturers and principal Inhabitants of the City of Norwich, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Buck-