His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said anonymous threatening Letter, and in directing and sending the same by the Post, as above-mentioned, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Finckney Wilkinson does, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons (except as above excepted) making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by him upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Finckney Wilkinson.

Navy-Office, October 17, 1766.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of January, to the 30th of June, 1766, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy in Broad-Street, on Tuesday and Wednesday the 4th and 5th of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, viz. To Captains and their Attorneys, and other Officers appearing themselves, on the Tuesday; and to Attorneys of Lieutenants, Masters and Surgeons, on the Wednesday, (after which the Lists will be recalled once a Month) that all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay; but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty; and in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Vitrualling-Office, October 31, 1766.

The Commissioners for Vitrualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 17th of December next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing, (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for furnishing such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels with Sea Provisions as may touch at North Carolina, and be in Want thereof; also Fresh Beef on a separate Contract.

The Conditions of the Contracts may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Vitrualling-Office, London.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
 October 11, 1766.

Notice is hereby given, that such Persons as may be willing to purchase (together or in separate Parcels) the Dues of Lead Ore, raised from Michaelmas 1765, to Michaelmas 1766, within the Manor of Alston-Moor, Part of the Derwentwater Estate in the County of Cumberland, may deliver in their Proposals (sealed up) to the Directors of this Hospital, at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 12th Day of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; or on or before Friday the 7th Day of the same Month, to Mess. Walton and Smeaton, at Farnaces near Newcastle upon Tyne.

Jⁿ Ibbetson, Secretary.

N. B. It is expected that Security be given by the respective Purchasers before the Delivery begins, for Payment of the Money at Michaelmas, 1767, and to oblige them to remove the Ore before that Time.
