

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 4, to Saturday November 8, 1766.

St. James's, November 8.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeffes, Common-Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Barrington, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeffes, Common-Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and dutiful Congratulations on the Birth of a Princess; and likewise on the Marriage of the Princess Caroline Matilda, your Majesty's Royal Sister, with the King of Denmark.

May the August House of Hanover increase, and, by its Intermarriages, cement the Protestant Interest in Europe.

The late gracious Interposition of your Majesty's Prerogative, whereby this Nation was saved from Dearth and Famine, and all their attendant Calamities, demand our most grateful Acknowledgments. In former Times the Royal Prerogative was seldom vigorously exerted, but for the Purpose of Violating the Life, the Liberty, or the Property of the Subject; it was seldom felt but in its most terrible Consequences.

Now under your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, it has relieved the Necessities of your People; it has revived the drooping Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and supplied the Defects and Imperfections of your Laws: May your Majesty still continue to place your chief Glory in the Prosperity of your People, and make the Exercise of your Royal Power conducive to their Interests.

Dated at the Council Chamber of this Borough, the 29th Day of October, 1766.

Florence, October 25. The Great Dutchess has been very ill for many Days, but is now without any Fever, though extremely weak.

Turin, October 25. The Baron de Basquiat de la Houze, Plenipotentiary from the Court of France to that of Parma, passed by this Place last Sunday, in his Way to Parma.

Whitehall, November 8.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Robert Coney, John Cowslade, George Chad, and John Grey, Esqrs. together with Daniel Bull, Esq; in the Room of Francis Hales, Esq; deceased, to be Commissioners for Appeals, and regulating His Majesty's Duties of Excise.

Whitehall, November 8, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Thursday Night last the 6th instant, the following anonymous threatening and incendiary Letter was found, dropped in the Market-Place in the Borough of Leicester, near the House of Mr. Alderman Joseph Chambers, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said Borough, containing the following Letters and Figures, to wit:
