Stockholm, November 4.

THERE was a Court at Dronningholm for three successive Days, which began the 28th of last Month.

The Princess Royal, after having received the Compliments of the Senate, and of the States, at Carlberg, arrived at Dronningholm in the King's Barge, accompanied by six others, about Five o'Clock in the Afternoon; where her Royal Highness was received at the Landing-Place by all the Officers of the Household, and was led by the Prince Royal to the Queen's Apartment, where the whole Court was assembled.

The first Compliments being over, the Royal Family dined together in Publick, the Foreign Ministers and all the Court attending; after which they were entertained at Dinner by the Grand Marshal, together with the Senators and other Persons of Distinction.

When Dinner was over they went to the Princess Royal's Apartment, and were presented to her Royal Highness by Count Thorn. In the Evening there was an Opera, and afterwards they supped with the King and the Royal Family; and the Whole was not ended till Three o'Clock in the Morning.

The second Day the Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction dined at the King's Table. In the Afternoon the whole Court went to the Chinese House in the Park; where they were presented with Coffee; and as soon as the Company was returned to the Palace, the Ball began, which was followed by a Supper.

The third Day was passed in the same Manner, only the Coffee was served in the Princess Royal's Apartments; and instead of a Ball there was a Comedy.

On Friday the Foreign Ministers returned to Stockholm.

The Princess Royal has made her publick Entry this Morning; and the Marriage Ceremony is to be performed at Seven o'Clock this Evening in the Chapel Royal.

Leghorn, November 7. His Britannick Majesty's Consul has prevailed upon the Officers of the Health here to abolish the Quarantine, which has ever subsisted on all Ships and Vessels coming from the Island of Minorca, which was extremely inconvenient for the King's Ships, and prejudicial to the Commerce on that Island.

Florence, November 8. The Minister from Tripoli, who has resided here for some Months, set out Yesterday for Leghorn in order to embark for Tripoli, and is to be attended thither by one of the Great Duke's Snobs.

On the 4th Instant, being the Name-day of the King of Spain, there was Gala at Court; the Great Duke came to Town to receive the Nobility, who were admitted to kiss his Hand, as usual; and he afterwards dined in State: The Great Dutchess's Health did not permit her to come to Town on this Occasion; but she had a Drawing-room in the Evening at the Palace in the Country, from whence the Court returned to Town Yesterday.

Copenhagen, Nov. 11. Her Danish Majesty made her publick Entry into this Capital on Saturday the 8th Instant; and on the Evening of the same Day the Royal Nuptials were solemnized in the Chapel of Christiansburg. As every Body seemed to vie in their Desire of testifying the Satisfaction this happy Union afforded them, the Splendor of the Entry was as great as can well be supposed. The Court has continued in Gala ever since, and proposes doing so to the End of this Week; during which Time the Festivities will last.

The King has been pleased to appoint Sir James Gray, Bart. and Knight of the Bath, His Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the King of Spain.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Honourable David Steuart Esq; commonly called Lord Cardross, to be Secretary to His Majesty's Extraordinary Embassy to the King of Spain.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Mansfield Cardonnel, Joseph Tuder, George Clerk Maxwell, and Basil Cochrane, Esq; together with John West, Esq; in the room of Alexander Le Grand, Esq; deceased, Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of His Majesty's Customs, and other Duties, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and also for the Receipt and Management of the Duties on all Salt and Rock Salt imported, and Salt made there.

Whitehall, November 22, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Saturday Morning last the 15th instant, was found, in the Garage of Joshua Turner, Doctor of Physick, at Milton Ermys, near Beaford, the following anonymous threatening and incendiary Letter, directed, and containing the following Letters and Figures, viz.

"For Dockter Turner."

"Dockter Turner

 "November 15."

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said anonymous threatening and incendiary Letter, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SHEL BURNE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I the said Joshua Turner, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid, by me, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Jos. Turner.

St. James's, November 20, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night between the 29th and 30th of September last, His Majesty's Custom House at Swanzev in the County of Glamorgan, was feloniously broke and entered by Persons unknown; and a Desk, in which the Crown's Money was deposited, was broke open, and the Sum of 92l. or thereabouts, was, by the said Persons, feloniously taken and carried away: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offence, does hereby promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds for any Person or Persons, who shall make such Discovery, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

Edw. Stanley.

St. James's, November 8, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, That on Monday the 27th Day of October last an anonymous threatening incendiary Letter was found, laid upon a Bank by the Side of the High Road, before the Dwelling-house of Mary Smallpiece, of Steke next Guilford in the County of Surry, Widow, Tenant to Jeremiah Dyson, Esq; of the same Place, directed as is herein after mentioned, and containing the Words following, viz.

“ to Mr. Dyson at Stooke

“ Done By the parish or By Justice or Resen we ould
“ not Have Blamed you i Have your Bilding at “ Comemad any Night.”

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said anonymous threatening incendiary Letter, and putting the same in the Place above-described, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Falls, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Jeremiah Dyson, Esq; does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons (except as above excepted) making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid, by him, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Jeremiah Dyson.
