St. James's, February 24.

THE following Address of the Council of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, having been transmitted by Francis Fauquier, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor of the said Colony, to the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The dutiful Address of the Council of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Virginia at this Time convened in General Assembly, presume to approach the Throne on an Event very pleasing and interesting to us, and to all your People residing in America.

Allow us, Royal Sir, who are Inhabitants in this distant Part of your Realm, humbly to acknowledge the multiplied Instances of your Paternal Tenderness and Regard to us; and in particular to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's unbounded Goodness, and disinterested Kindness of your Parliament, to repeal the late American Stamp-Act.

We rejoice at this Time to declare, that His Majesty's Administration hath been conducted with Mercy and Clemency; and that you have condescended to hear the Complaints of your Subjects, and to use your Royal Hand to relieve them.

As Duty and Affection to your Majesty are fixed and unalterable Principles in us, we feel the Impressions of them so strong and lively in our Breasts, that we cannot omit to lay hold of this Opportunity to renew our most sincere Professions of our constant and inviolable Fidelity: And we do, with Zeal and Firmness never to be shaken, promise your Majesty, that we will at all Times exert ourselves in the Defence of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, at the Risque of our Lives and Fortunes.

We shall no longer presume to interrupt your Majesty's Attention to the Public Welfare, than by adding our most cordial Congratulations on the happy Addition to your Royal Family, and our fervent Wishes for its future Augmentation. Permit us, Gracious Sir, to express the Raptures we feel in enjoying the bright extended Scene of Felicities; and to glory and exult in participating of the Blessings provided for Posterity.

By Desire and in Behalf of the Council,
John Blair, President.

The following Address of the Synod assembled at New York has been presented to the King by the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WHILE your Majesty's American Subjects in general are rejoicing in the late signal Manifestation of your Paternal Care of these Colonies, we the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Churches of New York, New Jersey, Pensilvania, lower Counties upon Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, now convened in a Synod at New York, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Professions of Loyalty and Gratitude, and to lay at your Feet a fresh Acknowledgment of our unalterable Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

We adore the Goodness of Almighty God for the Establishment of the Protestant Succession, and review, with the highest Pleasure and Satisfaction, the Blessings the whole Nation has received from the Kings of your illustrious House; and it is our constant and ardent Prayer, that the British Sceptre may ever be swayed by a Prince of that Family, who have been the Friends of Liberty, and to which we are bound by the strongest Ties of Love and Interest.

But while we recognize our innumerable Obligations to your Majesty for your unwearied Attention to the British Empire in general, and that Paternal Protection of these distant Parts of it, which in the late War defended us against a powerful and barbarous Enemy, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to testify our profoundest Gratitude for your Royal Tenderness and Condescension, your benevolent and efficacious Interposition in the Repeal of the late Statute, by which so many Millions of your faithful Subjects, both at Home and Abroad, were alarmed and distressed. And as we look with Horror upon the Miseries we have escaped, we bless God for that Clemency which dissipated the threatening Cloud, and has engraved your Name on our Hearts, as our Father, our Deliverer, and our Benefactor.

In these Overflowings of Love and Joy, we cannot help expressing our Veneration for both Houses of Parliament, whose Wisdom, Justice, Moderation, and true Greatness of Spirit, are so eminently distinguished, in rejecting every Measure that might plunge us into Ruin, and casting an Eye of Pity upon our Distresses, and a Veil of Love over the Tumults and Irregularities in some of the Provinces.

It is with the highest Joy we see the Minds of your People already softening down to their former Contentment, and that Flame of Affection to their Mother Country re-inkindled, so necessary to the Establishment of Harmony between all the Parts of your extensive Dominions. It shall be the Business of our Lives to pray for your Majesty's Prosperity; and teach your numerous merous Subjects under our Care, Love to God, and Affection to the best of Kings, Submission to Magistrates, Obedience to the Laws, and the Necessity, Honor, and Happiness of our Dependance upon Great-Britain.

Signed in the Name, in the Presence, and by the Order of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, by

At New York, Elibu Spencer, Moderator.
June 2, 1766.

Copenhagen, January 31. The Prince of Brunsvick Bevern arrived here a few Days since from his Government of Rendsburg; as did Count Schmettau, Commander in Chief of the Forces in Norway, from thence.

Count Welsberg, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Vienna, arrived here on the 28th, and has already made his Visits to the Foreign Ministers

His Excellency M. Desmercieres, Deputy in the College of Commerce, and one of the Directors of the Bank, has just resigned the former of those Employments.

Turin, February 11. Early last Saturday Morning, we had here a very sensible Shock of an Earthquake, which lasted about three Seconds. It has been felt more severely at Genoa, where it has done a little Damage to some of the Houses.

Hamburg, February 13. The Population of this City has not increased this Year, as it appears, that 3400 Persons have died, and that only 2983 Children have been born; 1079 Couple have been married.

Hague, February 17. The Marquis d'Havrincour, Ambassador from his most Christian Majesty to the States-General, died here on Sunday last in the Afternoon, of the Small-Pox, sincerely regretted by all Ranks of People for his good Qualities: The Ambassadors, never having had that Distemper, had been obliged to leave the House at the Request of her Husband, and will probably return to France with her two Sons.

The Annual Fast will be observed Tomorrow throughout these Provinces.

War-Office, February 24, 1767.

IT is His Majesty's Pleasure, that all Officers, whether taken from the Half-Pay or otherwise who have been appointed to any Regiment of the British Establishment, but on Stations out of Great Britain, and whose Commissions are dated on or before the 1st Day of October, 1766, shall set out, within one Month from the Date hereof, to join the Corps to which they belong, except they have already obtained the King's Leave of Absence, or unless they shall now obtain it through the Application of their Colonels; which Application is not to be made except on very cogent Reasons. And all Officers belonging to the above-mentioned Regiments who have now Leave of Absence from their respective superior Officer commanding where the Regiment is stationed, (if no particular Time is specified for such Leave) are to apply through their Colonels, that the Time may be ascertained by the King, and before the Expiration of the Time so limited, they are to join their Corps. It being His Majesty's firm Resolution to supercede any Officer who shall disobey these his Orders.

All future Leaves of Absence are to be exactly regulated according to His Majesty's Orders, bearing Date the 11th Day of February, 1767.

By his Majesty's Command,
BARRINGTON.

BEAUME DEVIE.

By His Majesty's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, granted to the Patentees for the sole Making and Vending the same in Great-Britain and the Colonies.
THE Virtues of this Medicine are manifest beyond Contradiction in all Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels; Gout, Gravel, Scurvy, Rheumatism, Agues, and all Intermittents. In Female Complaints it has never failed to relieve, and it is the greatest Restorative in the World for impaired and shattered Constitutions. Its high antiseptic Virtues render it specifically valuable as a Preservative against all infectious Distempers; and as it is the most powerful Antiforbic, no Medicine extant deserves so much to be regarded for the Service of His Majesty's Navy. For a more ample Account of its Uses the Public is referred to a Pamphlet of Cases, to be had of the Venders of this Medicine, which (as well as the Marc or Residuum for external Use) is sold in Bottle at 3s. each by W. Nicol, Bookstaller, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, T. Becket in the Strand, T. Durham at Charing Cross, Richardson and Co. at the Royal Exchange, R. Davis in Piccadilly, and W. Fierney, Holborn.
Good Allowance to Country Dealers, Captains of Ships, and those disposed to give it away. This Medicine may be had in all the Towns in England, Scotland, Ireland, and the Colonies.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of John Pinches, late of Brompton near Chatham in the County of Kent, Surrogate, deceased, are desired forthwith to pay their respective Debts to Mr. Richard Bellon, of Bread-Street Hill; and all Persons having any Demands thereupon are also required immediately to send an Account thereof to the said Mr. Bellon.

An ENTIRE NEW Work.

This Day is published,

Elegantly engraving on Six Sheets of large Elephant Paper, and dedicated by Permission to his Royal Highness the Duke of York, &c. &c.

A General Chart of St. George's Channel, containing a particular Description of the Bearings of each Point of Land by the Common Compass, as well as the true Meridian Line, and their Distance from each other; with the Depth of Water, Setting and Flowing of the Tides. Also the Bays, anchoring Places, Harbours, Rocks, Banks, Shoals, &c. &c. from Lundy Island in the British Channel, on the English Coast; Tramore Bay and Waterford, on the Coast of Ireland, to the Southward and Westward; Mull of Cantyre, on the Coast of Scotland, and Fairhead—Rathlin, and Ballycastle, on the Coast of Ireland, to the Northward; and the Harbours of Liverpool, Chester, Lancaster, and Glasgow, to the Eastward. Corrected from actual Surveys, experienced Pilots, &c. and the principal Harbours and Roads in England, Scotland, Wales, and Ireland, laid down on a large Scale. With a Book of printed Directions.

By Capt. ROBERT WILLIAMSON.

This Work, before engraving, was shewn to and approved by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, and several Admirals, Captains, and Commanders in the Royal Navy and Merchants Service, which has encouraged the Author to publish it at his own Expence, no correct Chart of that Channel having been hitherto published, which has occasioned the Loss of many Ships and Lives every Year for the last Twenty Years past.

Published for the Author, at Baker's Coffee-house in Exchange Alley, and at the Salopian Coffee-house near the Admiralty; and sold by T. Jefferys, Geographer to His Majesty, at Charing-Cross, R.
