

No. 10710.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 10, to Saturday March 14, 1767.

Genoa, February 21.

EARLY Yesterday Morning his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick arrived in this City from Turin. About Half an Hour after his Arrival he was complimented by the Master of the Ceremonies in the Republick's Name, who renewed the Offer of a Deputation on Behalf of the Republick, which his Serene Highness desired, in the most polite Manner, to be excused from accepting. The Prince will embark, in a few Days, on board His Majesty's Ship Montreal, for Antibes or Toulon.

The late Earthquake has done considerable Damage to the Houses in this City. It has been succeeded by several other Shocks not so violent as the first; and there is a constant Tremor in the Earth, felt in the City and its Environs.

Florence, February 21. The Great Dutchess was churched the Day before Yesterday with great Ceremony; after which she received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers. The Great Duke and Dutchess dined in State; and in the Evening they went to a Ball in Mask, in one of the Theatres. There was a Promotion that Day of Fifteen Chamberlains, by which the whole Number now amounts to Fifty-eight. The Empress has, on this Occasion, sent a Present to the Great Dutchess of eight Buttons for a Stomacher, valued at about 1000 Zechins each; and the King of Spain has sent to her Royal Highness, by the last Courier, a Flower for the Breast, composed of Rubies and Diamond; which was accompanied with a large Diamond in the Shape of a Heart for the young Princess, of a much greater Value.

Hague, March 10. The Prince of Orange entered on Sunday last into his Twentieth Year; upon which Occasion a great Entertainment was given by Prince Lewis of Brunswick to the Foreign Ministers, and the People of the first Distinction of both Sexes.

Whitehall, March 14.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Edward Barker, Esq; to be His Majesty's Agent and Consul-General at Tripoli.

St. James's, March 13, 1767.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Letter, or Written Paper, has lately been sent to John Child, at Cleaton in the County of Salop, directed as hereunder, and containing the Words and Letters following, viz.

"To John Child at the Clee Town near the Brown Clee Hill."

"This is to Lett you know our Design that wee will put to death all that have united their Farms & cutt the years of them that occupy them & allso them that have staken up their Corn, The Parliament for our relief to help to Clem us They are going to lesson our Measure and Wait to the

"Lower Standard We are about Ten Thousand sworn and ready at any time And we wou'd have you get Arms and Cutlasses and swear one another to be true and we will Joyn you We have but one Life to Loofe and we will not clem We desire you to send to the Fur Hill no more from your Brother Sufferers at present"

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said Letter or Paper, and in Sending the same to the said John Child, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter or Paper) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of One Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

H. S. CONWAY.

St. James's, March 10, 1767.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Paper was lately thrown into a Person's House at Kidderminster in the County of Worcester, containing the Words and Letters following, viz.

"This is to give Notis to badgers and fore Stallers of grain that there as Been sum in perticular a wocheing your Motions and ther will Be in a wicks time some men Com ought of the Colepits by Nigt to Meak fire brans of all the abitations of the foretallers of grain but the best way to leave your selves feet the Cryer to work hand fell of all your Stock, to the Poor at a Reasonable Reat, but I would have You think this is a feit for it his the veri truth"

And also that several other Papers have lately been stuck up in many Parts of the said Town of Kidderminster, containing each of them the Words and Letters following, viz.

"This is to give Notis that the whole Number of Us are a Bought ten Thousant & aney one that will enter vollontier shall be urt but Whe shall force them all in We shall never disbond till Whe have made a Regulation one the forth March They be at this Town of Kidderminster"

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said several Papers, and in Throwing the First of them into the Person's House at Kidderminster, and Sticking up the Others in many Parts of the said Town, as above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote all or any of the said Papers) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of One Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

H. S. CONWAY.

Navy-Office, March 13, 1767.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half-