Dresden, March 7.

THERE was a Great Gala Wednesday last at this Court for the Elector's Name-Day. The whole Electoral Family dined under a Canopy of State, and were waited on by the Grand Officers of the Electorate; and in the Evening there was a more splendid and numerous Drawing Room than has been seen here on like Occasions, on Account of several Strangers of Distinction, who came here to divert themselves the last Days of the Carnival.

Brussels, March 13. This being the Birthday of the Emperor, there was a Grand Gala at Court. In the Morning his Royal Highness the Prince went in great State to the Church of St. Gertrude, where Te Deum was sung: Upon his Return he received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers, and at One o'Clock dined in Publick, and was served by the great Officers of the Court and the Chambellans in Waiting.

As we are now in Lent there will be no Comedy or Ball.

Paris, March 15. Her Royal Highness the Dauphiness died at Versailles last Friday Night the 13th Instant, between Eight and Nine o'Clock. His most Christian Majesty and all the Court retired immediately to Maily.

Navy-Office, March 13, 1767.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of July, to the 31st of December, 1766, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy in Broad-Street, on Monday and Tuesday the 30th and 31st of this Month, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, viz. To Captains and their Attorneys, and other Officers appearing themselves, on the Monday; and to Attorneys of Lieutenants, Masters and Surgeons, on the Tuesday. (after which the Lists will be recalled once a Month) that all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay; but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty; and in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

BEAUME de VIE.

By His Majesty's Royal LETTERS PATENT, granted to the Patentees for the sole Making and Vending the same in Great Britain and the Colonies.

THE Virtues of this Medicine are manifest beyond Contradiction in all Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels; Gout, Gravel, Scurvy, Rheumatism, Agues, and all Intermittents. In Female Complaints it has never failed to relieve, and it is the greatest Restorative in the World for impaired and shattered Constitutions. Its high antiseptic Virtues render it specifically valuable as a Preservative against all Infectious Distempers; and as it is the most powerful Antiseptic, no Medicine extant deserves to much to be regarded for the Service of His Majesty's Navy. For a more ample Account of its Uses the Public is referred to a Pamphlet of Cases, to be had of the Venders of this Medicine, which (as well as the Marc or Residuum for external Use) is sold in Bottles at 3s. each by W. Nicoli, Bookbinder, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, T. Becket in the Strand, T. Durham at Charing Cross, Richardson and Co. at the Royal Exchange, R. Davis in Piccadilly, and W. Flexney, Holborn.

Good Allowance to Country Dealers, Captains of Ships, and those disposed to give it away for charitable Uses. This Medicine may be had in all the Towns in England, Scotland, Ireland, and the Colonies.
