Admiralty Office, April 1, 1767.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty Sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on Saturday the 28th past, the Ship Matilda Catherina, of Copenhagen, of the Burthen of about 120 Tons, whereof Claas Peterfon was Master, bound from Copenhagen to Bordeaux, with a Cargoe of Pipe Staves, run on the Newrope Sand near Yarmouth, from whence she was got off; but received so much Damage, that the Master was obliged, for the Preservation of the Ship and Cargoe, and the Lives of her People, to run her on the Main near Yarmouth, where it is feared she would be lost; but that the Cargoe would in all Probability be saved.
Ph. Stephens.

Admiralty-Office, April 1, 1767.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on Sunday the 29th past, a Vessel was seen driving over the Sand called the Sunk, on the Coast of Essex, with a Flag flying as a Signal of Distress; that the said Vessel was boarded by two Fishermen, who not finding any Person on board, brought her to Gravesend, where she now lies in Charge of the Inspector of the River Thames; that by some Papers found in her, she appears to be the Catherina Margareta, whereof Olle Geertson Smidt was Master; that she was at Drontheim in Norway on January last; and that her Lading consists of Oil and Tar.
Ph. Stephens.

East-India House, March 13, 1767.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, do hereby Notice,

That a General Court will be held at Merchant Taylors Hall in Threadneedle-Street on Wednesday the 8th Day of April next, for the Election of Twenty-four Directors of the said Company for the Year ensuing, which will continue from Nine in the Morning until Six in the Afternoon.

And that the Transfer Books of the said Company's Stock will be opened again on Thursday the 9th Day of said April.

Navy-Office, March 27, 1767.

Whereas by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament Money was granted for paying a Bounty for the Year 1766, of Two Shillings and Six Pence a Day to Fifteen Chaplains, and Two Shillings a Day to Fifteen more Chaplains, who have served longest on board His Majesty's Ships of War; provided it appears, by the Books of the said Ships, that have been actually borne and mustered thereon for the Space of Four Years during the late War with France and Spain; and provided likewise, that such Chaplains do not enjoy the Benefit of some Ecclesiastical Living or Preferment, from the Crown or otherwise, of the present annual Value of Fifty Pounds.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice to all such Chaplains as are within the aforesaid Description, that they are forthwith to apply to this Office to be admitted to the said Bounty; and at the same Time to deliver a List of the Ships they have served in, together with an Affidavit made before a proper Magistrate, that they do not enjoy the Benefit of some Ecclesiastical Living or Preferment, from the Crown or otherwise, of the present annual Value of Fifty Pounds, in order that a List may be made out for the Payment of the aforesaid Bounty.

Victualling-Office, April 3, 1767.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 6th of May next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing, (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as are inclinable to undertake to furnish Sea Provisions to such of His Majesty's Ships and Sloop, as may touch at Yarmouth.
