St. James's, April 18.

The following Address of the Council and Assembly of North Carolina, having been transmitted by William Tryon, Esq; Governor of North Carolina, to the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, by him, been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of North Carolina.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Council and Assembly of this your Province of North Carolina, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Throne with our warmest Wishes for the Safety and Prosperity of your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

The very considerable Part your Majesty's faithful Subjects in America have born in the late Transactions, makes it highly necessary for them to take the earliest Opportunity of manifesting their unshaken Loyalty, and of making every Return of Duty and Gratitude for the Paternal Goodness which has so graciously relieved them. Permit us, Sir, your faithful Subjects of North Carolina, with all Truth, to assure your Majesty, That, in the Times of our utmost Apprehensions, our Breasts were ever filled with the purest Sentiments of Love and Loyalty to the best of Kings: Nor did we doubt but your tender Care over all your Subjects would (as soon as our Grievances were made known) relieve us from a Burden too heavy for us to bear.

It is the Glory and Happiness of the Inhabitants of this your Province of North Carolina, to look upon themselves as Part of the British Empire; and as such, to testify and acknowledge (upon all Occasions) not only the Love and Duty of their Hearts to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, but also their cordial and natural Attachment to the Mother Country; and we doubt not, but that the Wisdom and Justice, with which the Parliament assisted your Majesty in your most Gracious Purposes, of not only relieving your American Subjects from their late unhappy Situation, but of opening new Channels for Trade and Commercial Advantages, will be productive in us of every proper Sentiment of Respect and Gratitude.

With Joy and Thankfulness we acknowledge these recent Instances of your Majesty's Goodness, and the Justice of Parliament, as thereby the Happiness of your Subjects is secured and fixed upon the true Basis of Publick Liberty.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of an united, grateful, and happy People; and that when, after a Length of Years, Heaven shall take you to Itself, there never may be wanting one of your illustrious and gracious Family, to fill the Throne of the British Empire; are the ardent Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Assembly of this Province.

Jⁿ° Rutherford, President of the Council.
John Harvey, Speaker of the Assembly.

Scripture, and even in Heathen Authors, namely, that there was (and still is) a Race of Giants.
