

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 28, to Saturday May 2, 1767.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governours of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Printed, C. Drogheda. In. Penfionby.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands Prorogued to Tuesday the 21st Day of April Instant, be further Prorogued to Thursday the 27th Day of August following; We do therefore Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby Prorogued to Thursday the 27th Day of August next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 3d Day of April, 1767.

By their Excellencies' Command,
The. Waite.

GOD Save the KING.

Madrid, April 13. His Catholick Majesty and all his Royal Family removed on the 11th from the Pardo to the Palace in this Town.

Stockholm, April 14. M. Juel, the new Danish Minister, is arrived here.

Vienna, April 18. The Duc de St. Elizabeth, who has been long the Neapolitan Minister to this Court, has received and presented his Credentials as Ambassador Extraordinary; and is the Person appointed to make the formal Demand of the future Queen of Naples.

No Day is yet fixed for the Celebration of the Marriage; as soon as the Ceremony is performed, the Archdutchess will remove to the Belvedere, (a Palace which the Empress purchased from the Heirs of Prince Eugene) and keep a separate Court there as Queen.

Copenhagen, April 21. This being the first Day on which his Danish Majesty appeared in Publick since his late Illness, most of the Nobility, and all the Foreign Ministers, were at Court to compliment him upon the Occasion.

An Order is issued for the Court's going into Mourning To-morrow for the late Dauphiness.

[Price Three-Pence.]

St. James's, May 1.

This Day Hodge El Harbi Miffery, Ambassador from the Emperor of Morecco, had an Audience of Leave of His Majesty.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 1, 1767.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an anonymous incendiary Letter was received, from the London Post, on Thursday the 19th of March last, by James Peole, Mayor of Taunton in the County of Somerset; and that another anonymous incendiary Letter was found at the Street Door of the Dwelling-House of the said Mayor of Taunton, on Wednesday the 21st of April last, about Five o'Clock in the Morning; which said anonymous incendiary Letters were respectively directed as hereunder, and contained the Words and Letters following, viz.

“ To

“ The Whpfull The Mayor
“ in Taunton dean.

“ So St.

“ You are again trying to Bring about the “ Damn'd Coalition are you again with the Damned
“ Presbyterians take Warning in Time or ruin will “ soon be your Portion in this life and Damnation
“ in the next. leave these Canting Rascalls in time
“ and join in supporting the Good old cause Your “ ffather Gloried in could your ffather look out of
“ his Grave & see you joyning with these Miscreants,
“ good God how would he Stare and blush for you—
“ That little Villian Rascall is gon to Hell to pre-
“ pare the Warmest Corner for those of his Tribe
“ and if you dont forsake them You shall soon fol-
“ low him thither alter your Conduct in Time or “ Sudden distruccion will come upon You your “ Wife & Children for we are determined to distroy
“ you and pull your fine House down to the Ground,
“ Your reason they say for trying to bring about
“ the Damned Coalition again in that the Presby-
“ terians are wigs damn their wigs and your Head
“ of hair too, blue, blue for ever. You would not “ have had this Warning, but that you have some “ good Qualities & that We have still some hopes
“ that You are an honest true blue, no more at “ present but that this warning comes from a well
“ wisher of yours and the Church of England —
“ repent in time or you shall be destroyed.
“ an honest true blse.”