

Foundation is laid for securing the most considerable and essential Benefits to this Nation.

As no material Alteration has happened in the State of Foreign Affairs since your first Meeting, I have nothing to communicate to you on that Subject. The fixed Objects of all My Measures are to preserve the Peace, and, at the same Time, to assert and maintain the Honour of My Crown, and the just Rights of My Subjects.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the necessary Supplies which you have so cheerfully granted for the Publick Service; and my particular Acknowledgments are due to you, for the Provision you have enabled Me to make for the more honourable Support and Maintenance of My Family.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The great Attention which you have shewn to the particular Purpose for which I called you so early together, and the very wholesome Laws passed for relieving My Subjects from the immediate Distress which the great Scarcity of Corn threatened to bring upon them, give Me the most sensible Pleasure. I rely upon you for the Exertion of your utmost Endeavours to convince My People, that no Care has been wanting to procure for them every Relief which has been possible; and that their grateful Sense of Provisions so wisely made for their present Happiness and lasting Prosperity, cannot be so fully expressed, as by a strict Observance of that Order and Regularity, which are equally necessary to the Security of all good Government, as well as to their own real Welfare.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Monday the Thirty-first of August next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday the 31st Day of August next.

Moscow, May 28. The Empress sat out the 28th of last Month for her Expedition on the Wolga. She embarked at Twer, and arrived at Yerosslaw the 10th of this Month. To this Place most of the Foreign Ministers are gone by Land to pay their Respects to her Imperial Majesty.

Genoa, June 13. Two other Convoys of Expulsed Jesuits arrived at Bastia; but as that Port was not capable to contain the Number of Vessels, they were ordered and sailed for San Fiorenza.
