AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th Day of June, 1767,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Names of many of the Officers serving in the respective Regiments and Battalions of Militia within the several Counties in England and Wales, have been frequently returned by the Judges in the List of Persons proper to be appointed Sheriffs, notwithstanding such Officers are by Law exempted from serving the Office of Sheriff during the Time of their Service in the Militia: And whereas the Impropriety of such Returns has proceeded from the Want of Information being given to the Judges of the Names of the several Officers serving in the Militia, from whence many Inconveniencies have arisen: His Majesty, in order to prevent the like happening for the future, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to Require and Command, that the respective Lieutenants of the several Counties in England and Wales, where the Militia has been raised and embodied, do cause Lists to be made every Year of the Names and Places of Residence of the Officers serving in the Militia within the respective Counties, and cause the said Lists to be delivered into the Hands of the Clerk of Assize, in order to be laid before the Judges at the Time of holding the Summer Assize, that Care may be taken, for the Time to come, not to insert the Names of any such Officers on the Roll of Persons to be proposed to His Majesty as proper to serve the Office of Sheriff.

Robert Walpole.

Admiralty-Office, July 18, 1767.

HIS Majesty having signified His Pleasure to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the embroidered Uniform Cloathing appointed to be worn by Flag Officers, and the Full-Dress Uniform Cloathing appointed to be worn by Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, be discontinued; that the Frock Uniform Cloathing appointed to be worn by the said Officers, be altered as mentioned at the Foot hereof; and that for the Future no other Military Uniform Cloathing than the Frock Uniform, altered as aforesaid, be worn by the said Officers, excepting such as have already provided themselves with Uniform Cloathing according to the Establishment of 1748, who are on that Account allowed to wear the same until the 4th of June next: Their Lordships do hereby give Notice thereof to all Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, and direct and require them respectively to conform strictly thereto.

Ph. Stephens.

Alterations in the Uniform Cloathing of the Flag and other Officers of His Majesty's Fleet.

The Admirals Frocks to have narrow Lappels down to the Waist; small Boot Cuffs; a single Lace instead of treble Lace down the Side Skirts; to be laced with a plain Mousquetaire Lace, agreeable to the Pattern lodged at the Navy Office, and in all other Respects to be the same as are now worn.

The Captains and Commanders Frocks to have narrow Lappels down to the Waist, and in all other Respects to continue as they are now worn.

The Lieutenants Frocks to have narrow Lappels down to the Waist, Slash Cuffs like the Commanders (without Lace) instead of Roll Cuffs, and in all other Respects to remain as they are now worn.

Madrid, June 29. His Catholick Majesty and all the Royal Family removed from Aranjuez to their Town Residence on the Evening of the 27th.

Turin, July 4. His Sardinian Majesty, whose Health seems perfectly established during the short Stay he made at the Venerie, is returned to Town with the Royal Family.

Florence, July 4. Dispositions are making with great Diligence in the Great Duke's Palace, for the Reception both of the Emperor and the future Queen of Naples in the Autumn.

Hamburg, July 10. Yesterday Morning passed under the Walls of this City, in his Way to Travendahl, a Palace belonging formerly to the Duke of Piöen, where that Monarch proposes to reside for Eight Days. Before the King's Departure he was pleased to express himself satisfied with the Pains the City had taken to contribute to his Amusement, and honored their Deputies with handsome Presents of Gold and Enamelled Snuff Boxes.

Brussels, July 14. On Friday last their Royal and Serene Highnesses the Prince and Princess and young Prince of Brunswick arrived here in perfect Health. They were received
