Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 11, to Saturday August 15, 1767.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th Day of July, 1767,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act for allowing the Importation of Wheat and Wheat Flour from His Majesty's Colonies in America into this Kingdom, for a limited Time, free of Duty," It is enacted that it shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesty's Subjects to import into Great Britain, in any Ship or Vessel navigated according to Law, at any Time or Times before the first Day of August One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-seven, any Wheat or Wheat Flour from any of His Majesty's Colonies in America, without the Payment of any Subsidy, Custom, Duty or Impostion whatsoever, in the Manner therein mentioned. And whereas by another Act passed in the said Session of Parliament, entitled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-seven; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; for carrying to the Aggregate Fund a Sum of Money which hath arisen by the Two-sevenths Excise; for empowering His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit the Importation of any Sort of Corn or Grain, Duty Free, into this Kingdom, for a longer Time than is permitted by any Act of this Session of Parliament; and for obviating Doubts, in relation to the Meeting of Commissioners for putting in Execution an Act of this Session for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax;" after reciting that it might be expedient, during the Recess of Parliament, to permit the Free Importation of the said Articles into this Kingdom beyond the Time limited by the said Act for the Free Importation thereof; It is enacted, amongst other Things, that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, from Time to Time, during the next Recess of Parliament, (whenever it shall appear expedient to His Majesty so to do) by His Royal Proclamation to be issued by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, to permit the Free Importation of the Articles aforesaid from any Parts or Places in His Majesty's Dominions in America, for any Time or Times until the first Day of February One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-eight: And whereas it appears to His Majesty to be expedient at this Time, that the Free Importation of Wheat and Wheat Flour from any Parts or Places in His Majesty's Dominions in America should be further continued; His Majesty doth therefore hereby Order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the Free Importation into Great Britain of Wheat and Wheat Flour by any of His Majesty's Subjects be permitted from any Parts or Places in His Majesty's Dominions in America, in any Ship or Vessel navigated according to Law, from the Expiration of the Time limited for the Importation thereof by the first mentioned Act, until the First Day of February, 1768, under the Regulations and in the Manner mentioned and contained in the said recited Acts; of which all Persons concerned are hereby required to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

St. Ildesons, July 27. The Court of Spain removed hither on the 22d.

Lisbon, July 29. On the 22d Instant the Hampden Packet arrived here from Falmouth in Eleven Days, with the three Mails of the 23d and 30th past, and 7th Instant.

M. Francisco de Mello de Carvalho, appointed Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Denmark, embarks in this Packet for England, in his Way to Copenhagen.

Berlin, August 4. Last Sunday the Prince and Princess of Anhalt Dessau set out from hence for Potsdam, where they were to pass a few Days with the King of Prussia, and then to go to Dessau.

A few Days ago the King of Prussia was pleased to name Major General Ramin to be Governor of Berlin, in the room of Lieutenant General Hulsen lately deceased.

Hague, August 11. The Prince of Orange set out from hence on Saturday Evening for Loo, where his Serene Highness arrived in good Health very early the next Morning. The Day before his Departure was the Anniversary of the Princess of Prussia's Birth, his future Princess, upon which Occasion he received the Compliments, and celebrated it by an Entertainment at the Palace of the Old Court.

The Weather continues very fine in these Parts, which gives great Hopes for the ensuing Harvest.

Whitehall, August 15.

The King has been pleased to order Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, containing a Grant unto the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Howth, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, of the Dignities of a Viscount and Earl of the said Kingdom, by the Names, Stiles, and Titles of Viscount St. Lawrence and Earl of Howth.

The King has been pleased to order like Letters Patent, containing a Grant unto the Right Honourable Charles Baron of Colloony, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, of the Dignity of an Earl of the said Kingdom, by the Name, Stile, and Title of Earl of Belamont.

The King has been pleased to order like Letters Patent, containing a Grant unto Constantine Phipps, Esq; and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, of the Dignity of a Baron of the said Kingdom, by the Name, Stile, and Title of Baron Mulgrave, of New Ross in the County of Wexford.
