

St. Ildesons, July 27. The Court of Spain removed hither on the 22d.

Lisbon, July 29. On the 22d Instant the Hampden Packet arrived here from Falmouth in Eleven Days, with the three Mails of the 23d and 30th past, and 7th Instant.

M. Francisco de Mello de Carvalho, appointed Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Denmark, embarks in this Packet for England, in his Way to Copenhagen.

Berlin, August 4. Last Sunday the Prince and Princess of Anhalt Dessau set out from hence for Potsdam, where they were to pass a few Days with the King of Prussia, and then to go to Dessau.

A few Days ago the King of Prussia was pleased to name Major General Ramin to be Governor of Berlin, in the room of Lieutenant General Hulsen lately deceased.

Hague, August 11. The Prince of Orange set out from hence on Saturday Evening for Loo, where his Serene Highness arrived in good Health very early the next Morning. The Day before his Departure was the Anniversary of the Princess of Prussia's Birth, his future Princess, upon which Occasion he received the Compliments, and celebrated it by an Entertainment at the Palace of the Old Court.

The Weather continues very fine in these Parts, which gives great Hopes for the ensuing Harvest.

Whitehall, August 15.
