At the Court at St. James's, the 28th Day of August, 1767,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for allowing the Importation of Oats and Oat-meal, Rye and Rye-meal, into this Kingdom, for a limited Time, free of Duty;" it is Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatsoever, to import into this Kingdom, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, at any Time or Times before the Twenty-ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, any Oats or Oatmeal, Rye or Ryemeal, without the Payment of any Subsidy, Custom Duty, or Impostion whatsoever, in the Manner therein mentioned. And whereas by several other Acts passed in the said Session of Parliament, the free Importation into this Kingdom of Wheat or Wheat Flour, Barley, Barley-meal, Peas, Beans, Tares, or Callivancies, Malt, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch, from any Part of Europe, by any Person or Persons, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, is permitted until the Tenth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven. — And whereas by another Act passed in the said Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-seven; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; for carrying to the Aggregate Fund a Sum of Money which hath arisen by the Two-sevenths Excise; for empowering His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit the Importation of any Sort of Corn or Grain, Duty Free, into this Kingdom, for a longer

Time than is permitted by any Act of this Session of Parliament; and for obviating Doubts, in relation to the Meeting of Commissioners for putting in Execution an Act of this Session for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax;" — After reciting the said former Acts; and that it might be expedient, during the Recess of Parliament, to permit the Free Importation of the said Articles mentioned in the said several Acts, into this Kingdom, beyond the Time limited by the said Acts for the Free Importation thereof; It is enacted, amongst other Things, That it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, from Time to Time, during the next Recess of Parliament, (whenever it shall appear expedient to His Majesty so to do) by His Royal Proclamation to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, to permit the Free Importation of all or any the said Articles and Things, from any Parts or Places in Europe, for any Time or Times until Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament: — And whereas it appears to His Majesty to be expedient at this Time, that the Free Importation of Oats or Oatmeal, Rye or Ryemeal, Wheat or Wheat Flour, Barley, Barley-meal, Peas, Beans, Tares, or Callivancies, Malt, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch, from any Parts or Places in Europe, should be further continued until Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament — His Majesty doth therefore hereby Order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the Free Importation into Great Britain of Oats or Oat-meal, Rye or Ryemeal, Wheat or Wheat Flour, Barley, Barley-meal, Peas, Beans, Tares, or Callivancies, Malt, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch, be permitted from any Parts or Places in Europe, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, from the Expiration of the respective Times limited by the said Acts for the Free Importation thereof, until Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, under the Regulations and in the Manner mentioned and contained

tained in the said recited Acts --- Of which all Persons concerned are hereby required to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th Day of August, 1767,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch; and also the Exportation of Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat and Wheat Flour;" It is enacted, amongst other Things, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry, or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed, out of or from the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be laden or laid on Board, in any Ship, or other Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of the said Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, with such Exceptions and Qualifications as are therein mentioned, any Sort of Corn, Grain, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Starch, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned, until the Tenth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven. --- And whereas by the said Act His Majesty is authorized and empowered, by His Royal Proclamation to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, from Time to Time after the said Tenth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, and before the next Session of Parliament, if the same should appear expedient to His Majesty, to prohibit the Exportation of all or any of the said Commodities for any Time or Times until Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament; such Prohibition not to extend to such or so much of the said Commodities as are allowed by the said Act to be exported, under certain Rules and Regulations, to the Places and for the Purposes therein mentioned. --- And whereas it appears to His Majesty to be expedient at this Time that the said Prohibition should be further continued until Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament --- His Majesty doth therefore hereby order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry, or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed, out of or from the said Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be laden or laid on Board, in any Ship, or other Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of the said Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, any Sort of Corn, Grain, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Starch, from and after the said Tenth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, until Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned in the aforesaid Act; except such or so much of the said Commodities as are allowed by the said Act to be exported, under certain Rules and Regulations, to the Places and for the Purposes therein mentioned. --- Of which all Persons concerned are hereby required to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Constantinople, August 17. On Thursday the Grand Signor made a Visit to the Ichoglans, a School to educate Boys for Officers in the Seraglio. Upon which Occasion, according to Custom, the British Ambassador sent the Present of Confectionary; and the Grand Signor was graciously pleased to return his Thanks, and to give the Castan, for the first Time ever practised, and an hundred Dollars to the English and French Drugemen.

St. Ildefonso, September 7. The Court has been greatly alarmed by a Misfortune which happened this Morning to the Prince of Asturias, who fell with his Horse, and dislocated his Shoulder; but it was soon after set, and his Royal Highness blooded; so that no bad Consequence is apprehended.

Vienna, September 12. On Tuesday Evening, after the Neapolitan Ambassador had had his Public Audiences to demand the Archduchess in Marriage for the King his Master, the Feasts upon this joyful Occasion began with a magnificent Ball at Shenbrun; after which all the Ambassadors, and some of the first Officers of State and principal Nobility, had the Honor of Supping with their Imperial Majesties. The next Morning they had all the Honor of congratulating the Emperor and Empress, and the future Queen of Naples, in Private Audiences, and Thursday and Yesterday paid their Compliments in the same Manner to the Rest of the Imperial Family.

M. Visconti, the Pope's Nuncio to this Court, who arrived last Week from Warsaw, has had his first Private Audiences.

A Fire broke out at the Testerdaz's, which entirely consumed his House, and that of Tiharaga's Family; the second Time that they have had their Houses burnt within the Year.

He left this Place early on Saturday with a numerous Retinue, and arrived at Loo the same Day, where he continued Sunday and Yesterday; and this Morning sat out for Brunswick, where he will stay two or three Days, and then proceed to Potzdam by the Way of Magdeburg; and, it is said, the Marriage will be celebrated at Berlin on the 4th of October.

The Accounts of the Harvest from all the Northern Parts of Europe are extremely favorable; so that, without some very extraordinary Causes, the Price of Grain must fall considerably before the Winter.

September 22.

This Day Baron Diede de Furstenstein, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had a private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Gloucester and the Duke of Cumberland.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Bank of England, September 24, 1767.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held (by Adjournment) at their House in Threadneedle Street, on Wednesday next the 30th Instant, from Nine in the Morning till Six in the Evening, for the Determination by Ballot of the following Question, viz.

“ That the Dividend of the Interest and Profits on the Capital Stock of this Company, for the Half-Year ending the 10th of October next, be Two Pounds Fifteen Shillings per Cent.”

N. B. By Act of Parliament, no Proprietor can be admitted to Ballot, but those who were qualified on or before the 1st of August, 1767.

Victualling-Office, September 25, 1767.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 21st of October next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing, sealed up, and treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to undertake to furnish Sea Provisions to such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as may touch at Virginia, and be in Want thereof.

The Conditions of the Contract (in which some Alterations have been made since the last Publication) are to be seen at the Secretary's Office.

And all Persons who may think proper to make Tenders upon the said Occasion are desired to take Notice, that no Regard will be had to any Tender that shall not be delivered to the Board before One o'Clock on the said 21st of October next.

Mercers Hall, London, September 25, 1767.

The Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the City of London, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the 21st Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, do hereby desire their several Annuitants, or any Person duly authorised by any Writing under their Hands, to meet at Mercers Hall in London, on Wednesday the 4th of November next, being the first Wednesday in that Month; at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, to nominate and appoint Nine or more Persons to audit and examine the Accounts of the Receipts and Payments by the said Act directed to be audited and examined.

W. Cawne, Clerk.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mulletts Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epſom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Trade, which has been carried on in the joint Names of Mary Beaumont, Widow, and John Beaumont, her Son, Vintners, at the Ship Tavern in Leadenhall-Street, London, will, from this Day, be continued by the said Mary Beaumont only on her own separate Account; and that the said John Beaumont hath no Interest or Concern therein. Witness our Hands this 22d Day of September, 1767.

Mary Beaumont.
John Beaumont.

IF Thomas Rumbold, late of Long-Alley near Moorfields in the County of Middlesex, or William Rumbold, late of the same Place, his Brother, who were the Sons of Thomas Rumbold, formerly of the same Place, Stocking-Trimmer, deceased, who was the Son of William Rumbold, heretofore of King's-Clerie in the County of Southampton, Yeoman, deceased, or, if dead, any of their lawful Issue, will apply to Mess. Bristow and Winterbottom, at Merchant Taylors Hall, London, or to Mr. James Gwyn, Attorney at Law, in Aldersgate-Street, London, on or before the 30th Day of January next, they will be informed of something greatly to their Advantage: Or if any Person or Persons can produce good Proof of the Deaths of the said Thomas Rumbold and William Rumbold without Issue, or of the last Place of Abode of the said Thomas Rumbold and William Rumbold, to the said Mess. Bristow and Winterbottom, or to Mr. James Gwyn, on or before the said 30th Day of January, such Person or Persons will be handsomely rewarded for their Trouble.

N. B. The said Thomas Rumbold and William Rumbold are supposed to have gone to some Parts beyond the Seas, and as it is imagined to North America, about Fifty Years ago, and to have been then about Sixteen or Seventeen Years of Age.

PURsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors and Legatees of Lewis Buckridge, late of Ware in the County of Hertford, Esq; deceased, are to come before William Graves, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their Debts and claim their Legacies, on or before the 20th Day of November next, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the Decree.

ALL Persons who any legal Demands on the Estate and Effects of Henry Bond, late of Hadleigh in the County of Suffolk, Gentleman, deceased, are desired to bring in their several Accounts to William Terry and John Heath, of Hadleigh aforesaid, Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said Deceased, as they may receive Satisfaction for the same: Also all Persons indebted are desired forthwith to pay their several Debts to the said Executors, otherwise they will be sued for the same.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Thomas Horsfall, of London, Merchant, are desired to meet the Assignees of the the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, on Thursday the 1st Day of October next; precisely at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at John's Coffee-house in Cornhill, London, upon special Affairs relating to the said Bankrupt's Estate.
