

again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on Board any Ship or Boat not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall for every Offence forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on Board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, and for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on Board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on Board his Vessel, he shall for every such Offence forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Whitehall, December 29.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant His Royal Licence unto the Right Honourable Thomas Baron Bruce, of Tottenham in the County of Wilts, and to the Issue of his Body lawfully begotten, to take, use, and bear the Name, Arms, and Supporters of Bruce.

Whitehall, December 22, 1767.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That, on the Night of the 28th of November last, a Sash Window, in the House of James Poole, Esq. at Taunton in Somersetshire, was forcibly raised, and a Quantity of Gunpowder thrown into the Room, at the same Instant that a small Quantity was set Fire to on the Window Sill, with an Intention, as is supposed, to communicate with the Gunpowder that was thrown into the Room, by which Means considerable Damage must have been done to the House: His Majesty, for the discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually threw the Gunpowder into the said Room, and set Fire to some on the Window Sill who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I the said James Poole do hereby promise a Reward of Thirty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted;) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, December 22, 1767.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That on the 15th of this Instant December, a threatening Note was dropped in the Entrance into the House of Mr. John Cole, of Taunton in Somersetshire, containing the Words following:

“ Every damned Wiggish Scoundrel that does not Vote for Popham, shall have his Throat cut “ by Christmas Day next.”

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in Writing the said threatening Note, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said threatening Note) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I the said John Cole do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
