THOMAS Brettingham, who was born at Northwilkham in Norfolk about the Year 1720, and about the Year 1736 or 1737 was bound Apprentice to Mr. William Gibson, of Great Yarmouth, Shipmaster, and in the Year 1740 parted by Consent from his said Master's Service, and left Yarmouth with an Intention, as he declared, to ship himself for a Voyage to the East or West Indies, but having never since been heard of by his Relations, is supposed to be dead. If the said Thomas Brettingham be living, and applies to Mr. Spurgeon, Town-Clerk of Yarmouth, he will be put in Possession of a handsome Fortune; and any Person who can give Intelligence whether the said Thomas Brettingham be living or not, or where; and in what Employment he has been in, at any Time since the said Year 1740, are earnestly requested to communicate the same by Letter to the said Mr. Spurgeon.

Newark, January 22, 1768.

Whereas it has been for many Years a Matter of Doubt whether the Owners of Vessels upon the River Trent, or the Proprietors of the Goods, Merchandize, &c. which have and still continue to be conveyed up and down the said River, are answerable for the Damages that have and may happen by Vessels sinking, &c. which said undetermined Case has and might be productive of very expensive Law Suits and Troubles to the Parties to whom such Misfortunes might happen; and as the present Freights paid for such Conveyance of Goods and Merchandize up and down the said River, from Gainsborough to Newark and vice versa, and elsewhere, whereunto our Vessels may have Occasion to go, are not a sufficient Consideration for both Freights and Risque of such Goods: Therefore we whose Names are hereunder written give this Publick Notice, That from and after the 1st Day of February, 1768, we will not run any Risque or Hazard, or be accountable for any Damage or Loss that may happen to any Sort of Goods or Merchandize being on board any of our Vessels that may have the Misfortune to sink, unless we do by a particular Agreement in Writing insure the same; but shall continue to convey what Goods are consigned to our respective Care, on the following reasonable Terms, viz.

For every Hoghead so conveyed, agreeable to what is set forth in this Advertisement, from Gainsborough to Newark, the Sum of	s. d.
Every Tierce or ½ Cask of Common Merchandize, such as Sugar, Tobacco, Snuff, &c.	2 6
Each Barrel of like Kind	1 10
All half Barrels and smaller Casks in due Proportion.	1 3
Burts of Currants, Puncheons of Rum, Pipes of Wine, &c. of equal Tonnage, each	5 0
All other Goods and Merchandize, of what Kind soever, in different Package, in like Proportion, their Bulk and Weight considered.
