

Interest, as well as Duty, as to go on to interrupt, by their lawless and desperate Practices, that quiet and peaceable Enjoyment of every Right and Privilege allotted to each Individual among us by our excellent Constitution, which it has ever been Your Majesty's first Object and chief Glory to secure and perpetuate to us all; permit us, your Majesty's truly dutiful and grateful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, to assure your Majesty of our ready Concurrence in every Measure that may contribute to enable your Majesty most effectually to maintain the Publick Authority, and carry the Laws into due Execution; and of our determined Resolution, most chearfully and vigorously to support your Majesty against every Attempt to create Difficulty or Disturbance to Your Majesty's Government.

Abley Cowper, Cler. Parliamentor.

His Majesty's most Gracious Answer,
My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Receive with great Satisfaction this loyal, dutiful, and seasonable Address of both Houses of Parliament. It is with the utmost Concern, that I see this Spirit of Outrage and Violence prevailing among different Classes of My Subjects. I am however convinced, that the vigorous Exertion of lawful Authority, which I will continue to enforce, joined to your Support and Assistance, will have the desired Effect of restoring Quiet and good Order among My Subjects.

Carlton House, May 14, 1768.
