St. James's May 13, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Wind Saw Mill, at Limehouse in the County of Middlesex, belonging to Charles Dingley, of the City of London, Esq; was, on Tuesday the 10th Instant, unlawfully, and with Force, begun to be pulled down and demolished, and was, thereby, rendered totally useless, by a Mob of People unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, to the Disturbance of the Public Peace: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said outrageous and unlawful Act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to any One of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

WEYMOUTH.

St. James's, May 13, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Tuesday Night the 10th Instant, the House of Edward Russell, in the Borough of Southwark, Distiller, was violently attacked by several Persons unknown, who, by many outrageous Acts, did considerable Damage to his Property; and threatened his Life, and to burn down his House: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in these heinous Crimes, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

WEYMOUTH.

St. James's, May 13, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Front of the House of Richard Capel, Esq; at Bermondsey in Southwark, was, on Tuesday the 10th Instant, demolished by a Mob of People unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace; that the said Richard Capel has got a large Contusion on his Arm, occasioned by a Blow from a Stone or Brickbat thrown at him, at the Time abovementioned; and that his Life is threatened: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said outrageous and unlawful Acts, does hereby promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

WEYMOUTH.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1768.

His late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places abovementioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Belson, at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea-Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the
