Naples, June 14.

ON Sunday last Count Kaunitz, by Order of the Empress Queen, gave a most magnificent Ball, after having distributed to the Populace 40000 Silver Coins of her Sicilian Majesty, about the Size of Shillings and Sixpences. The Great Duke of Tuscany was present at this Donation, and the Money was thrown by Count Kaunitz and her Royal Highness's Attendants. The Great Duchesse having been slightly indisposed, was not at Count Kaunitz's Entertainment. On Wednesday Count Kaunitz likewise, by Order of the Empress, gives a masked Ball; and, on Sunday next, M. Clemente, the Spanish Minister, by Order of his Catholic Majesty, will give a Concert and Ball to the Nobility, and a Cuccagna to the Populace.

Stockholm, June 17. During the Exercise at the Camp last Wednesday, Prince Frederick received a slight Wound in his Foot by a Soldier's Bayonet falling upon it; which obliged his Royal Highness to leave the Camp, and to return to Dronningholm.

Berlin, June 25 Her Royal Highness the Princess of Prussia is so well recovered, that she went Yesterday to Potsdam.

Princess Ferdinand of Prussia having been for some Time indisposed, the Physicians have advised the Use of the Baths of Aix la Chapelle; and accordingly his Royal Highness Prince Ferdinand, and the Princess, sat out for that Place on the 18th Instant.

The King of Prussia, accompanied by the Prince Royal, arrived on the 20th, in perfect Health, at Potsdam.

Hague, July 1. The King of Denmark arrived at Utrecht in the Night between Monday and Tuesday last: His Majesty declined the Honours offered him, and the Deputation of the States of that Province, which waited on him on Tuesday Morning, but was pleased to receive the Gentlemen who composed it, on the Footing of a private Visit, and to admit them to the Honour of Dining with him. His Majesty went on Wednesday to Amsterdam by Water, and has signified his Intention of going to the Hague on the 4th Instant. Baron de Choüffes has notified to the Ministers of the States his Majesty's earnest Desire to remain incognito, and to be treated as a private Gentleman.

The Prince of Orange has been at Zutphen to review the Garrison, and was by the last Accounts returned to Loo, in good Health. His Serene Highness is expected here on the 11th.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of June, 1768,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT having been represented to His Majesty, that several Persons, who have obtained Orders of His Majesty in Council for Grants of Land in His Majesty's Island of St. John in North America, have neglected to take out such Orders, or, if taken out, to present them to His Majesty's Governor of Nova Scotia, by Means whereof His Majesty's Gracious Intentions, with Respect to the Settlement of that Island, may be defeated, and the Cultivation and Improvement thereof greatly obstructed and retarded; It is therefore this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of His Majesty's Colony of Nova Scotia, do forbear to pass any Grants, under the Seal of that Colony, of any Lots or Parcels of Land in His Majesty's said Island of St. John, unless His Majesty's Order in Council, directing the same, shall have been produced to him on or before the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year 1769: And that this His Majesty's Order in Council be published in the London Gazette, to the End that all Persons concerned may have due Notice thereof.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, July 6.

This Day his Excellency the Count de Chatelet, Ambassador from France, had a private Audience of His Majesty, to notify the Death of the Queen of France.

And afterwards M. Batailhe de Francis, Minister Plenipotentiary in the Absence of the Ambassador, had his first Private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Credentials.

To which they were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, July 7.

This Day his Excellency the Count de Chatelet, Ambassador from France, had a Private Audience of Her Majesty, to notify the Death of the Queen of France.

And afterwards M. Batailhe de Francis, Minister Plenipotentiary from France in the Absence of the Ambassador, had a Private Audience of Her Majesty.
