And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mess. Hewitt and Smith do hereby promise a Reward of Ten Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted;) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Hands of Samuel Hewitt.

St. James's, July 16, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an anonymous threatening Letter, wrote with Red Ink, was, in the Night between the 29th and 30th of June last, put in between the Shutter and the Window of the Custom-House at Southwold, directed as hereunder, containing the Words and Letters following, viz.

“ To

Mr. John Church
“ Officer”

“ Dear Jack

“ As i once was your acquaintance
“ i thought it my Duty to let you know the “ danger you are in, in loofeing your Life for it is “ determined to take you off the very first Oppor“ tunity which certainly will not be long, unless
“ you leave off being so very officious, it is wrote
“ in Red as an Emblem of Our Designs.”

General Post Office, June 25, 1768.

His Majesty's Postmaster General, for the further Improvement of Correspondence, intending to establish a Post Six Times a Week, instead of Three as at present, between England and Ireland; both by the Way of Holyhead and Port Patrick; the several Regulations for that Purpose will commence on Wednesday the 6th of July next.

From that Time also the Letters between several Parts of England and Ireland, which have hitherto been sent through London, will be circulated directly through the Bye and Cross Roads; by which Means the Correspondence between many Commercial Parts in both Kingdoms will be greatly accelerated.

Notwithstanding the frequent Regulations and Improvements made by the Postmaster General for the Benefit of Correspondence in divers Parts of Great-Britain and Ireland, it still appears, that vast Numbers of Letters are privately collected and delivered contrary to Law, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue: Public Notice is therefore hereby given, That all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Dispersers of Country News-Papers, Higlers, and all others whatsoever, hereafter detected in the illegal collecting, conveying, or delivering of Letters or Packets, will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity.

The Penalty is Five Pounds for every several Offence, and One Hundred Pounds every Week such Practice is continued: One Moiety to the King, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall inform against the Offender or Offenders.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
