

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 19, to Saturday July 23, 1768.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

Townshend.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Writs have been issued for calling a Parliament to meet and to be holden at the City of Dublin on Monday the First Day of August next: And whereas His Majesty hath thought fit to signify His Royal Pleasure, that the Meeting of the said Parliament be put off until Tuesday the Sixth Day of September following;

We do therefore hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament be prorogued, and the same is hereby prorogued to Tuesday the Sixth Day of September next; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses are discharged of their Attendance on Monday the First Day of August next, and required to attend on Tuesday the Sixth Day of September following accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 14th Day of July, 1768.

By his Excellency's Command,
Tho. Waite.

GOD Save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of June, 1768,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT having been represented to His Majesty, that several Persons, who have obtained Orders of His Majesty in Council for Grants of Land in His Majesty's Island of St. John in North America, have neglected to take out such Orders, or, if taken out, to present them to His Majesty's Governor of Nova Scotia, by Means whereof His Majesty's Gracious Intentions, with Respect to the Settlement of that Island, may be defeated, and the Cultivation and Improvement thereof greatly obstructed and retarded; It is therefore this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of His Majesty's Colony of Nova Scotia, do forbear to pass any Grants, under the Seal of that Colony, of any Lots or Parcels of Land in His Majesty's said Island of St. John, unless His Majesty's Order in Council, directing the same, shall have been produced to him on or before the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year 1769: And that this His Majesty's Order in Council be published in the London Gazette, to the End that all Persons concerned may have due Notice thereof.

Steph. Cottrell.

Vienna, July 6. The Empress Queen goes To-morrow to Schloß-Hoff, where she will spend a few Days with the Duke and Dutchess of Saxe-Teschen.

A considerable Part of the Army being to form several small Camps this Summer, his Imperial Majesty will make a Tour to visit them. It is said he will go to Stiria about the Middle of this Month for that Purpose; and into Moravia and Bohemia the Beginning of August.

Hague, July 19. Count Hompesch, one of the Nobles of Holland, is appointed to succeed the late Count Bentinck de Varel as High Bailiff of Woerden.

The King of Denmark continues his Abode at the Hague till next Thursday. His Danish Majesty has been entertained by the Prince of Orange, Duke Lewis of Brunwick, and last Night he was at the Abby of Leuvenhorst, one of the Piefs of this Province, situate about five Leagues from hence, and possessed by Baron de Boetzlaer, where there was a splendid Ball and Supper, which the Princes and Princesses of Orange and Nassau-Weilbourg honoured with their Presence. To-day his Majesty dined at the Imperial Minister's.

Whitehall, July 23.

The King has been pleased to appoint William Moore, Esq; Solicitor-General of the Island of Barbados.

St. James's, July 15, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, in the Night of the 12th Instant, or very early on the 13th, some evil-minded Person or Persons broke into the Melon-Ground of Mess. Hewitt and Smith's Nursery at Brompton, and stole 14 or 15 good Plants of the Laurel-leaved Magnolia; a Parcel of Chionanthus,

[Price Three-Pence.]

Chionanthus, or Fringe-Trees, 1 Foot or 15 Inches high; Two or three fine Bead Trees; cut up, broke down, and destroyed, a great Number of other valuable Plants; and, also, pulled up 41 Holes of fine Melon Plants under Frames and Bell-Glasses, and entirely destroyed them, with a Number of fine Cantaloupe Fruit not ripen'd: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said abominable Crimes, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person principally concerned) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Messrs. Hewitt and Smith do hereby promise a Reward of Ten Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted;) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Hands of Samuel Hewitt.

St. James's, July 16, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an anonymous threatening Letter, wrote with Red Ink, was, in the Night between the 29th and 30th of June last, put in between the Shutter and the Window of the Custom-House at Southwold, directed as here under, containing the Words and Letters following, viz.

“ To
Mr. John Church
“ Officer”

“ Dear Jack

“ As I once was your acquaintance
“ I thought it my Duty to let you know the “ danger you are in, in loosing your Life for it is “ determined to take you off the very first Oppor“ tunity which certainly will not be long, unless
“ you leave off being so very officious, it is wrote
“ in Red as an Emblem of Our Designs.”

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing the said anonymous threatening Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a further Encouragement, and in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, on the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

Edw. Stanley, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, July 13, 1768.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 24th of August next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to contract for furnishing Sea Provisions to such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as may touch at the Isle of Man, and be in Want thereof: Also Fresh Beef on a separate Contract.

The Conditions of the Contracts may be seen at the Secretary's Office at this Office, or by applying to the Collector or Chief Officer of His Majesty's Customs at the Isle of Man.

All Persons, who may think proper to make Tenders upon the said Occasion, are desired to take Notice, that no Regard will be had to any Tender that shall not be delivered to the Board before One o'Clock on the said 24th of August next.

General Post Office, June 25, 1768.

His Majesty's Postmaster General, for the further Improvement of Correspondence, intending to establish a Post Six Times a Week, instead of Three as at present, between England and Ireland, both by the Way of Holyhead and Port Patrick, the several Regulations for that Purpose will commence on Wednesday the 6th of July next.

From that Time also the Letters between several Parts of England and Ireland, which have hitherto been sent through London, will be circulated directly through the Bye and Cross Roads; by which Means the Correspondence betwixt many Commercial Parts in both Kingdoms will be greatly accelerated.

Notwithstanding the frequent Regulations and Improvements made by the Postmaster General for the Benefit of Correspondence in several Parts of Great-Britain and Ireland, it still appears, that vast Numbers of Letters are privately collected and delivered contrary to Law, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue: Public Notice is therefore hereby given, That all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Dispersers of Country News-Papers, Higlars, and all others whatsoever, hereafter detected in the illegal collecting, conveying, or delivering of Letters or Packets, will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity.

The Penalty is Five Pounds for every several Offence, and One Hundred Pounds every Week such Practice is continued: One Moiety to the King, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall inform against the Offender or Offenders.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

This Day is published,

In One Volume Octavo, Price sewed 5s.
