St. James's, February 6.

THE following Address of the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, was this Day presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, beg Leave to present our most humble and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Increase of your Royal and Illustrious Family; every Addition to which, we, with the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, consider as a farther Security of those invaluable Blessings, which this Nation has enjoyed under the House of Brunswick, and as a Pledge of its future Happiness.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction, as well as the deepest Sense of Gratitude, that your faithful Clergy take this Opportunity of their being convened, to repeat their Thankfulness to your Majesty for the frequent Assurances which you have given them of your firm Resolution to maintain them in the full enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights, and to make their publick Acknowledgment of the Experience they have had of your strict Adherence to those gracious Declarations.

Happy, Sir, would it be for this Nation, if your Royal Authority, if your Illustrious Example, if the Influence of your private and publick Virtues, had a more powerful Effect upon the Minds and Morals of your People. But we are obliged to confess what we with Sorrow observe, that a Disregard to the Sacred Precepts of Christianity, and a Neglect of its most essential Duties, become every Day more general through all Ranks of Men; and that a Spirit of Licentiousness prevails both in the Writings and Practice of the Times, equally dangerous to the best constituted civil Government, and to the purest of religious Worship.

Under these Circumstances we, who are most immediately engaged in the Service of Religion, feel ourselves in a more peculiar Manner called upon to check, as far as we are able, the growing Evils we lament; to impress, in the strongest Manner, upon the Minds of the People, Fidelity to, and Zeal for, the established Religion of our Country, with Moderation and Christian Charity towards those who have the Misfortune to differ from us; to admonish them to be attentive to the sacred Principles of Religion, and to use their utmost Endeavours to make their Lives conformable to its holy Doctrines.

Thus alone can we acquit ourselves of our Duty towards God, and contribute to the present Welfare and future Happiness of our Fellow-Creatures.

In these our pious Endeavours, we know we can depend upon the Countenance and Protection of your Majesty: May you, Sir, with the Assistance of the Almighty, long continue the firm Support of the Protestant Faith: May the same Providence, under whose Divine Protection you carried on and concluded the most successful War that is recorded in the Annals of our History, enable you to preserve to your People, for a Course of many Years, the Blessings of Peace: And may you continue to derive constant Satisfaction to yourself, from a Sense of that Happiness which your Subjects receive from the Wisdom and Mildness of your Government.

They were received very graciously, and all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Return you My Thanks for this very dutiful and loyal Address, and for the Share you take in My Domestic Happiness, so warmly expressed in your affectionate Congratulations on the Increase of My Family. It is with the greatest Pleasure I observe your Reliance on My invariable Resolution to preserve and maintain the Civil and Religious Rights of the Church of England as by Law established. You may depend upon My constant Approbation and strongest Support of your Endeavours to suppress that Spirit of Licentiousness and Immorality,

[ Price Three-Pence. ]

Immorality, which unfortunately prevails so much at this Time. The very laudable Zeal with which you exert yourselves in impressing upon the Minds of the People a proper Sense of our Holy Religion, and just Observance of the Laws of this happy Constitution, will ever meet with My Countenance and Protection.

Copenhagen, January 17. On Saturday last the King of Denmark arrived here in perfect Health: The Queen went as far as Roschild to meet his Majesty. Between Six and Seven o'Clock in the Evening their Majesties made a Publick Entry into this Capital, under a triple Discharge of Cannon on the Ramparts. The whole Garrison, as well as the Burghiers, were under Arms; and Permission having been given a few Days before to illuminate the Houses, the Inhabitants vied with each other in doing this as well as the short Notice would admit of, and in demonstrating their Joy on this happy Occasion.

Berlin, January 28. Some Days ago Advice was received of the Death of his Serene Highness Frederick Christian, Margrave of Bareith, by which the Reigning Margrave of Anspach succeeds both to the Title and Territory.

Brussels, January 31. Yesterday the Marquis de Cardon was presented at Court, who is going to the Hague with the Character of his Sardinian Majesty's Minister there.

Saturday last died here Philip François de Varich, Count de Sart, Grand Maître de Cuisine, and Chambellan to their Imperial Majesties.

St. James's, January 31, 1769.

It having been humbly represented to the King, That, on the 23d of last Month, a Gang of Robbers attempted to break into the House of Mrs. Nasbe, in the Parish of Hagley, near Stourbridge, in the County of Worcester; and, on the 15th of this Instant, tried to get into Mrs. Midwinter's House, in the same Parish, both at the Windows and Doors; which Attempts were rendered unsuccessful by the particular Vigilance and Courage of their Maid-Servants and one Man; and that some idle Persons have been seen, three several Times, lurking about Baker King's Art-Houses: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in making the Attempts above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplices in the said Facts, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Parishioners of Hagley aforesaid do hereby promise a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery; to be paid by the Hands of the Rev. Mr. Durant, Minister of the Parish of Hagley, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

East-India House, February 2, 1769.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held (by Adjournment) at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Thursday next the 9th instant, from Ten in the Morning till Six in the Evening, for the Determination by Ballot of the following Question, viz.

“ That it is the Opinion of the General Court, that the Court of Directors be empowered to make an Agreement with the Publick on the Terms and Conditions mentioned in the following Propositions now laid before this Court.”

At a COURT of DIRECTORS, the 1st of February, 1769,

Resolved unanimously, That the following Minute be laid before the General Court appointed to be held To-morrow.

The Court of Directors having, in Consequence of the Recommendation of the last General Court of the 25th of January last, obtained from the Lords of the Treasury the Explanation therein desired, have drawn up the following Propositions, which concur, as they apprehend, with their Lordships Explanation, and they submit the same to the Consideration of the General Court.

I. That 400,000*l.* a Year be continued to the Publick for Five Years, from the 1st of February instant.

II. That the Company be at Liberty to increase their Dividends to 12  $\frac{1}{2}$  per Cent. during the said Term, so as not to exceed One per Cent. in any one Year.

III. That if the Company shall, during the said Term, be obliged to reduce their Dividends from any Cause whatever, in such Case, there shall be deducted from the Sum agreed to be paid for the Use of the Publick a Sum equal to such Reduction; and in like Manner if the Company's Dividends shall at any Time during the said Term be again raised or restored, the Publick shall receive equal Benefit; but if the said Dividends shall be reduced to Six per Cent. then the Payment to the Publick shall be discontinued.

IV. That the Company shall be obliged to export in every Year during the Continuance of this Agreement, Goods and Merchandize of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, (Military and Naval Stores, excepted) of the like Value as they shall appear to have exported annually on an Average of Five Years preceding this Agreement.

V. That if any Surplus of Cash shall remain in England during the said Term, after the Discharge of the Company's Simple Contract Debts, bearing Interest, and the Reduction of the Company's Bond Debt to the Debt which shall be due from the Publick to the Company; then such Surplus shall be lent to the Publick at Two per Cent. per Annum.

ing desirous to een established ible Towns in England;

England, Scotland, and Ireland, as universally beneficial as possible, have been pleased to order the Letter-Carriers to go round their respective Walks with their Bells, every Night in the Week, Sundays excepted.

The many Instances of Letters being delayed by the Persons entrusted to bring them to this Office on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, as likewise on their not putting them into the Receiving-Houses, in order to embezzle the Penny it has been customary to give with such Letters on those Days, has induced their Lordships to give Directions at the several Receiving-Houses to take in, both Foreign and Inland Letters, to the usual Hour, every Day in the Week, except Sunday, without any Gratuity.

All Persons who may be obliged to send their Letters after that Hour to the Bell-Men, should be cautious whom they trust therewith, to prevent their being either detained till the next Day, or destroyed for the Penalty.

Each Letter-Carrier will for the Future, besides the usual Ticket at his Breast, be furnished with a printed One of the Hour he is daily dispatched from hence, in order to produce it to such Persons as may desire to be satisfied their Letters are not delayed.

By Command of the Postmaster General, Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Navy-Office, January 7, 1769.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Friday the 17th of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Navy with Jackets, Waistcoats, and Breeches, to be delivered into the Shop-Office at this Office, where Samples may be seen, that they may attend with their Proposals at that Time.
