By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For the Suppressing Riots, Tumults, and Unlawful Assemblies.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Us, that divers dissolute and disorderly Persons have most riotously and unlawfully assembled themselves together, to the Disturbance of the publick Peace; and have, in a most daring and audacious Manner, assaulted several Merchants and others coming to Our Palace at St. James's, and have committed many Acts of Violence and Outrage before the Gates of Our Palace; and that these Acts of Violence have been accompanied with Threats of a most dangerous Kind; We, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, and being resolved to suppress all such tumultuous Riots and Disorders, tending to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace, and to the Endangering of all Order and Government, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby strictly charging and commanding the Lord Mayor, and the Justices of the Peace of Our City of London, and the Justices of the Peace of Our City and Liberties of Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and of the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, that they do use their utmost Endeavours to prevent and suppress all Riots, Tumults, and unlawful Assemblies; and to put in due and strict Execution the Laws and Statutes made for preventing, and for the more speedy and effectual suppressing and punishing the same; and that all Our loving Subjects be aiding and assisting therein.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-second Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, in the Ninth Year of Our Reign.
GOD save the KING.

ving been lately stranded near St. Donats in the County of Glamorgan, was robbed and plundered by the Country People, and at length totally destroyed, notwithstanding the Endeavours of the neighbouring Magistrates to prevent it; and that Nine of the said Magistrates, in order to express, in a Writing signed by them, to the Earl of Plymouth, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, their just Abhorrence of an Outrage so subversive of Justice and Humanity, and so ignominious to their Country, and to prevent the like atrocious Practices for the Future, did, on the 14th Day of this Instant March, (in Consequence of an Adjournment) meet at the Bear Inn in the Town of Cowbridge in the said County of Glamorgan, to consult about the most effectual Means for bringing the principal Offenders to condign and exemplary Punishment, but could not then learn who the said principal Offenders were: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said principal Offenders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and likewise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any one of them, who shall discover the Rest of the said principal Offenders in the said atrocious Acts above-mentioned, or any Two or more of them, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also the same Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person, not an Accomplice in the said wicked Crimes, who shall discover those principally concerned therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid: The said Reward, in either Case, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said principal Offenders.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Geo. Box, Clerk.

THE Trustees of the Royal Exchange, met at the Exhibition-Room in William-Street, on Tuesday the 14th Instant, to take into Consideration the Merits of the 61 Designs, which had been transmitted to them; when the Premiums were adjudged in the following Manner:

- The First of 100 Guineas to Mr. Thomas Cooley, London.
- The Second of 60 Guineas to Mr. James Gordon, London.
- The Third of 40 Guineas to Mr. Thomas Sandby, London.

The Trustees afterwards took into particular Consideration the Merits of the Irish Performances, and awarded to Mr. Thomas Ivory, Mr. Thomas Jarratt, and Messrs. Sproule and Meyers, a Piece of Plate each, Value 30 Guineas, as an Encouragement to the Architects of this Country, and from a due Sense of the Merits of their several Designs.

It is thought proper to observe on this Occasion, that some Plans of high Merit in many Instances, and most justly admired, laboured under Objections, which had their Foundation in an unlucky Misapprehension of the Purposes of the interior Disposition.—Upon the Whole, the Trustees sincerely lament, that it is not in their Power to make a suitable Compensation for the Pains taken by such a Number of ingenious Artists, and that, amidst the many Plans which have a Variety of Merit, they must confine themselves to a bare Acknowledgment of it, expressing the Sense they have of the Honour done to them, in the Attention paid to their Advertisement, by Persons capable of producing such masterly Performances.

The Plans, to which Premiums have not been adjudged, will be delivered to the Order of the Authors, by Mr. Christopher Deey, in Crampton-Court.

Signed by Order of the Trustees,
Christopher Deey, Register.
