

The following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's, having been transmitted to the Earl of Rochford, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's, humbly beg Leave to express our deep Concern on Account of the riotous and licentious Spirit that has lately appeared in the Behaviour of some of our Fellow-Subjects; tending to disturb the Peace of your Majesty's Government, to destroy True Liberty, and to prevent the Execution of the Laws.

With the highest Gratitude to your Majesty, we reflect on the Happiness which we, in common with your other Subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious, just, and mild Administration.

In the Province that belongs to us, as it is our Duty, so it shall ever be a principal Object of our Attention, to inspire the Youth, entrusted to our Care, with a warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, an Abhorrence of all factious and seditious Principles, and a sincere Affection for the Laws and Constitution of their Country.

That it may please Almighty God to guard your Sacred Person, to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign, to direct your Councils, and to crown them with Success, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
 Your Majesty's most Faithful, most Dutiful,
 and most Loyal Subjects.

Signed, in Name of the University, by Kinnoul, Chancellor.
And. Shaw, Rector.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Haddington.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN these Days of unjustifiable Riot and Disorder, permit us, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, humbly to approach your Royal Presence with the most unfeigned Assurances of Loyalty and Esteem. Gratefully sensible of the Constitutional Blessings we enjoy, it is our warmest Wish to transmit them inviolate to Posterity; and these Blessings, we are persuaded, stand inseparably connected with the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Reign, and the Prosperity of your illustrious Family. Such, most Gracious Sovereign, are the Sentiments of our Hearts; and such Sentiments shall uniformly regulate our Conduct.

Geo. Suttie, Prefes.

Rome, March 11. On the 6th Instant at Noon the Great Duke of Tuscany arrived in this City from Florence, attended by the Counts of Rosenbergh and Turn, and with a suitable Retinue, and went to his Palace called Villa Medici. His Arrival was immediately made known to the College of Cardinals in the Conclave, by a Billet from Baron St. Odile, his Minister, to Cardinal Alexander Albani; whereupon, in the Evening, M. Rezzonico, Maggior Domo of the Palace, and actual Governor of the Conclave, was sent by them to compliment his Royal Highness, who was also complimented by the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, the Roman Princes, Nobility, Prelates, &c. whom he received with great Affability, especially those invested with the Order of the Golden Fleece; many of whom he daily admits to his Table.

The Princes Albani and Corsini were appointed to attend his Royal Highness during his Stay at Rome, and the Abbe Graggini has also been defined as Antiquary, to attend him, to observe the Curiosities of this Capital. For this Purpose he goes out every Day, and passes the Evenings at the Assemblies, expressly made for him by the Princesses Altieri, Poli, Bracciano, the Venetian Ambassadors, Borgheze, Salviati, &c. &c.

On the 8th Instant the usual Present, consisting of Eatables and Drinkables, was carried to his Palace by 142 Men, 130 of whom were from M. Rezzonico, Maggior Domo of the Palace; and 12 from M. Cafali, Governor of Rome.

A most magnificent Present for his Royal Highness has also been prepared by the Cardinals in the Conclave, consisting of a large Cross of Gold fixed upon a Pedestal, with several Figures and Instruments representing the Crucifixion of our Saviour, all in Gold, weighing about 16 Pounds, some Pictures of Tapestry and Mosaick, and 12 Volumes in Folio richly bound, containing the Prints of Rome.

The same Day M. Asburn, the Spanish Minister, received a Courier from his Court, with Notice, that the two Spanish Cardinals were on their Voyage by Sea, on board of two Spanish Ships of War, from Alicant to Civita Vecchia.

St. James's, April 5, 1769.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That Hugh Ross, Esq; of the City of London, Merchant, was, on Wednesday the 22d of March last, (when accompanying the Body of Merchants, Traders, and other Principal Inhabitants of the said City, in order to attend His Majesty with their humble Address) sate in his Carriage in St. James's-Street, between Bennet-Street and St. James's Palace, by a riotous Mob of People then assembled there; that one of them, a middle-sized Man, dressed in light-coloured Cloaths, with a Leather Apron on, and a Hammer in his Hand, (appearing very much like a Carpenter) attacked the said Mr. Ross's Carriage, and, with his Hammer aforesaid, broke the Doors and Wooden Blinds to Pieces, and then, without the least Provocation whatever on the Part of the said Mr. Ross, (who is upwards of Seventy Years of Age) struck him in the most cruel and inhuman Manner several violent Blows with the Hammer on his Leg, from his Knee to his Instep, notwithstanding he had then already received three desperate Wounds in his Face, by Brickbats and Stones, &c. which the Populace had thrown at him, which had also bruised and almost beat out one of his Eyes; and that the said Mr. Ross, from the Wounds and Bruises which he received in the shocking and inhuman Manner above-mentioned, was for some Time in imminent Danger of his Life: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons principally concerned in the said atrocious and inhuman Acts, is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall discover the Man who attacked the said Mr. Ross's Carriage, and afterwards struck him with a Hammer as aforesaid; and likewise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in the said atrocious and inhuman Acts, (except the Man that actually struck the said Mr. Ross with the Hammer, in the Manner above-mentioned) who shall discover the said Man, so that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of the said Offender

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Hugh Ross does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by him on the Conviction of the said Offender.

Hugh Ross.

Whitehall, April 8, 1769.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night between the 3d and 4th of this Instant April, a Bureau belonging to Mrs. Mary Compagnon, a L. dger in the House of John Taylor,
