St. James's, April 22.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Inverness, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honorable James Stuart Mackenzie, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Inverness, in a numerous Meeting held at Inverness the 4th Day of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of your County of Inverness, with Hearts impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy, in common with all your other Subjects, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and the Protection afforded us in the full Possession of all our Rights and Liberties, both Sacred and Civil, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, to declare our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family. We should think ourselves wanting in that Duty and Affection we owe to the best of Sovereigns, if we did not testify our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of that Spirit of Licentiousness, which, under the specious Pretence of Liberty, prevails at this Time, and is fomented by factious and seditious Persons, who, for selfish and wicked Ends, creating an Opinion of their own Importance, by vilifying and depressing every Thing that should be held respectable among Mankind, and flattering the lowest of the Populace with the Hopes of Impunity, have stirred them up to the Committing the most amazing and unheard-of Outrages, in order to persuade the Ignorant and Unthinking, that the Cry of the Mob is the Voice of the People. The Consequences of which riotous and tumultuous Proceedings must be alarming to all who have any Regard to the Honour of your Majesty's Government, and the Peace and Welfare of your Kingdoms.

Sensible of the Necessity there is of putting an immediate Stop to this growing Evil, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, at the Risque of our Lives and Fortunes, support such Measures as your Majesty in your great Wisdom may think expedient to pursue, for maintaining the Dignity of the Crown, restoring the Respect due to the Magistrates, enforcing Obedience to the Laws, and preserving that Subordination, without which Society cannot subsist.

Signed at Sight and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Aeneas Mackintosh of Mackintosh, their Preses.

Aeneas Mackintosh, Preses.

The two following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honorable the Earl of Fife, Representative in Parliament for the County of Banff, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Freeholders, the Sheriff Depute, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Banff, on Thursday the 6th Day of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

P Laced, as we are, by Providence at a Distance from the Seat of your Majesty's Government, we feel the happy Effects, and retain a most grateful Sense, of the Mildness and Benignity of it; and we cannot but be moved with an honest Indignation at, and filled with a thorough Abhorrence for, that Spirit of Sedition and Licentiousness, which has lately shewn itself in various Shapes, with a Design, but too evident, to detract from the Respect and Affection due to your Majesty, to vilify and misrepresent your Parliament, and to bring into Contempt the Authority of your Courts of Justice, the Judges of which, at no former Period were more justly intitled to that subordinate Respect which is due to them, than at present.

We hope it is owing to the good Genius of the Constitution of Great Britain, that the Conduct of these Disturbers of the public Tranquility is as weak as it is wicked; at the same Time we are not without Apprehensions, that if such Proceedings are not timely checked, they may operate to the Subversion of our Liberty, which we are sensible has been so tenderly cherished by your Majesty, and the two preceding Princes of your Illustrious Family. There is but a small Step from a National Abuse of Liberty to absolute Anarchy and Confusion; and it is with Hearts very much affected, that we behold the Wickedness of a Few have so great an Influence upon the Weakness of many more.

With Truth as with Pleasure we can assure your Majesty, that no such Spirit of Sedition prevails in this Part of your united Kingdom, every Person being sensible of the Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's gentle and Constitutional Government.

Small as our Weight is in the Scale of Great Britain, we think it our Duty, as faithful Subjects to you Majesty, and Friends of our invaluable Constitution, to lay these our Sentiments at the Foot of your Throne, relying on your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice, for the Exertion of such prudent and vigorous Measures, as may diffuse Peace and good Order throughout every Part of your extensive Dominions.

Thoroughly persuaded, that the Preservation of the public Tranquility and our own Safety are intimately connected with your Majesty's Government, we are determined, in our Sphere, to the utmost Risque of our Lives and Properties, to support your Royal Authority in suppressing and subduing all seditious and riotous Attempts, which threaten De-

frustration to the State, and disturb the Happiness and Honour of your Reign.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Town-Council, and Burgessees of the Royal Burgh of Banff, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and with Hearts full of Gratitude, to acknowledge the Blessings we enjoy, and the Satisfaction we feel, in the Protection of our Rights and Liberties under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We lament that licentious and seditious Spirit, which has of late been stirred up by some artful and designing Persons, unworthy of that true Liberty they in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects enjoy: And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall be wanting to prevent the Contagion spreading in this Corner, and to promote the Happiness and Glory of your Reign.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Community.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Ayr, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honorable David Kennedy, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Ayr, at a General Meeting held at Ayr this 6th Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine Years.

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects consider it as our Duty, at this Juncture, unanimously to present your Majesty with the warmest Assurances of our sincere and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government. Deeply sensible of the Advantages which we derive from our happy Constitution of Government, we have ever looked up to your Majesty as the Guardian of our Rights and Laws, and have observed, with no less Gratitude than Satisfaction, your sacred Regard to the Privileges of your Subjects, and your constant Attention to all the Duties incumbent upon the Sovereign of a free People. Filled with these Sentiments of Loyalty, we have beheld, with Concern and Detestation, the Endeavours of designing Men, to insafe into your Majesty's Subjects a licentious Spirit, inconsistent with the Order and Preservation of Society, under a Government remarkable for its Mildness and Equity: The Peace of the Capital has been disturbed by seditious Tumults: The Decrees of the Courts of Justice, the Independence of which your Majesty was early solicitous to increase, have been contemned: The Authority of Parliament has been arraigned: Attempts have been made to alienate the Affections of one Part of your People from the other; and to revive Distinctions, which the Wisdom of former Times had abolished. To Subjects possessed with Love to their Country, and Respect to their Sovereign, such Conduct must appear odious, as it is criminal: We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in dutiful Return for your Paternal Care, we will, at the Expence of our Lives and Properties, support the Constitutional Rights of your Government, the Dignity of your Crown, and the Authority of the Laws; and that, to our utmost Power, we will discountenance every Principle or Practice, which tends to disturb the publick Tranquility, or to destroy that Subordination, which is necessary in a well-regulated State.

The following Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Council of the Burgh of Ayr, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honorable James Stuart, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Baillies, and Council of your Burgh of Ayr, in Council assembled, deeply sensible of the great Blessings these Nations enjoy by the Preservation of our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, which have been the constant Objects of your Majesty's Care, since your Accession to the Throne of these Realms, humbly beg Leave to approach you with Hearts full of Gratitude, Loyalty, and Duty to your Majesty, and to express our Abhorrence of the late Riots, Tumults, and Disorders, which we behold as the Contrivances of wicked and designing Men, to disturb the publick Peace, and prevent the due Execution of the Laws, by spurring up the Foolish, Thoughtless, and Inconsiderate, to neglect their proper Business, and, in an illegal Manner, to assemble, and invade the Rights of others, by forcibly endeavouring to prevent your faithful Subjects from expressing their Love and Duty to your Majesty, and to intimidate the Officers of the Law in the due Execution of their Offices, by their illegal and unconstitutional Licentiousness: And to assure your Majesty, that all the People of this Corporation are well affected and firmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Government; and that we will use our utmost Endeavours, in our several Offices, to prevent all Tumults and Disorders.

That your Majesty may have a long and glorious Reign over a dutiful and loyal People; and that the Dignity of your Crown, and Peace among your Subjects, may be preserved, and the Spirit of Sedition prevented by a due Execution of the Laws, is the earnest Prayer of the Magistrates and Council of your Burgh of Ayr.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment.
David Bannatyne, Provost.
Ayr, April 5, 1769.

The following Address of the University of Glasgow has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING,

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, culty, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow, beg Leave to express our grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, which hath been uniformly conducted with the most tender Regard to the Civil and Religious Rights of your People.

It fills us with the utmost Astonishment and Concern, that notwithstanding your Majesty's unwearied Attention to support these invaluable Rights, a Spirit of Licentiousness and Tumult hath arisen, subversive of true Liberty as well as of Law and Government. We feel a just Indignation when we behold the Rage of disappointed Ambition disguising itself under the specious Appearance of Zeal for Liberty, and employing the meanest Tools of Faction in Support of such Measures as have a manifest Tendency to reduce the Nation to a State of Anarchy and Confusion.

Permit us to testify our utmost Abhorrence of these seditious and destructive Proceedings; and to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our constant Endeavour to instruct the Youth, under our Care, in the genuine Principles of Religion and Liberty; to teach them to view the former as the great Cement of human Society, and to regard the latter as founded on the Authority and due Execution of the Laws, and as not less remote from the capricious Tyranny of the Multitude, than from the absolute and arbitrary Will of a single Person.
