St. James's, April 29.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Henry Seymour and Robert Jones, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Huntingdon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to join with the Rest of your dutiful and loyal Subjects in expressing our Detestation of the Attempts that have been lately made in the Capital and other Parts of your Dominions, to disturb the Tranquillity of the mildest Government that ever existed in this or any other Kingdom.

We view with an Eye of Abhorrence the Arts of those wicked Incendiaries, who, under the Colour of redressing Grievances that do not exist, display the Banner of Discontent and Faction; and mean the Subversion of that happy Constitution which they pretend to support in its utmost Purity.

We have the Satisfaction to perceive, that the weak Attempts that have been made to extend the Flame of Sedition beyond the Limits of the Capital, have met with very little Success. We see, with the utmost Pleasure, the Sentiments of many great and opulent Counties and Cities that have already expressed their Duty and Loyalty: And we doubt not, but that their Example will be followed by all your Majesty's Subjects, who are not misled by designing Men, or infatuated by a false Notion, that Liberty is in Danger, at a Time when all thinking People are convinced, that it never had so firm an Establishment as under your Majesty's just and gracious Government.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, or, to sum up the Whole, that it may continue such as it has hitherto been, (for we cannot form a more extensive Wish) will be our ardent Prayer to the latest Hour of our Lives.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, has been presented to His Majesty by His Grace the Duke of Queensberry and Dover: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, met at Dumfries the 19th of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, animated with those Sentiments of Attachment and Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, which have ever distinguished the Members of this National Church.

It is with the utmost Abhorrence we hear of those riotous and tumultuous Proceedings, by which the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Reign hath been disturbed even in the Seat of your Government; and we embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that the same Sentiments of Abhorrence are universally entertained by the People under our Care.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty to reign over us in Happiness and Tranquillity; that he may continue to your Subjects the same Felicity they have already experienced under your auspicious Government, and inspire them more and more with the Disposition to fear God, and honour the King; and that the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution may continue secure to these Realms, under a long Succession of Princes of your Royal Race, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Signed in our Name and Presence, by James Moody, Moderator.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors, of the County of Berwick, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Marchmont: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors, of the County of Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors, of the County of Berwick, prompted by our Duty and Affection for the best of Kings, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to express our utter Abhorrence of the late riotous and seditious Proceedings, begun and somented by a Set of self-interested, evil-designing Men; which strike at the Foundation of our happy Constitution, and threaten Destruction to the State.

Permit us therefore most humbly to assure your Majesty, that we esteem our Lives and Fortunes of no farther Value than as they can be of Service to the Support of your Majesty's most auspicious Government, the glorious Succession in your illustrious House, and in Defence of our Religion, Liberty, Laws, and Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Greenlaw, this 18th Day of April, 1769, by Ro. Pringle, Preses.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Ross, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable James Stuart Mackenzie, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Ross, assembled assembled at Fortrose on Tuesday the 4th Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Rectors, of the County of Ross, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, and alarmed at the audacious Attempts which we have of late seen made, to poison the Minds, and alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects, beg Leave to make this public Profession of those Sentiments of Duty and Attachment which we owe to the best of Princes.

When we reflect on the whole Course of your Majesty's Reign over us, and more particularly on those signal Instances of your Regard for our excellent Constitution, whereby your Majesty has been pleased to provide for its farther Improvement, and greater Security, we are equally surpris'd and concerned, that any Set of Men should be found among us wicked enough to instil into the Minds of ignorant and unwary People, an Apprehension, that under the Government of your Majesty their Liberties are in Danger.

In the Defence of our Liberty, and of that Constitution whereof we consider your Majesty as the Chief Guardian and Protector, we shall ever be ready to stand forth; and we conceive, that we can never better testify our Zeal for that glorious Cause, than by expressing our Detestation of the seditious Practices of those Men, who, while they pretend to serve the Cause of Liberty, are in Reality the only Enemies from whom at present it has any Thing to fear; Men, whose Principles, under whatever specious Names they may be disguised, are such as lead them to blaspheme their God, to insult their Sovereign, to obstruct the Execution of the Laws, and to traduce the Ministers of Justice, who, by endeavouring to make the lower Ranks of People discontented with the Lot which Providence has assigned them, and exciting them to cast off all Sense of Order and Subordination, have done what in them lay towards rendering insecure the Life, Liberty, and Property of every Man, and towards introducing that Anarchy, which can end in nothing but Slavery.

Against all such Attempts we do most cheerfully engage to support your Majesty to the utmost of our Power; and we trust, that by the Wisdom and Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils, and the unshaken Fidelity of your Subjects, we shall soon see the pernicious Designs of those turbulent and profligate Persons, who, for their own factious and interested End, have set on Foot this Delusion, utterly blasted; that the Eyes of those, who for a Time may have been imposed upon, will be speedily opened; that those, who shall obstinately persevere in disobeying and resisting the Law, will suffer by the Law; and that the Effect of this daring but impotent Attempt will be to establish more firmly among us all, the fullest Conviction, that by supporting your Majesty's Government, we shall best provide for the secure Enjoyment of Liberty, Civil and Religious; and with that for the General Welfare and Prosperity.

By the unanimous Appointment of the Meeting signed by Sir Harry Munro of Fowlis, Baronet, their Preses.

Harry Munro, Preses.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr has been presented to His Majesty by David Kennedy, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Ayr, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Moderator, Ministers, and Elders, of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in Synod assembled, beg Leave to express the deep Sense we have of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and to testify our Abhorrence of that Spirit of Licentiousness and Riot, which unhappily prevails among some of your Majesty's Subjects.

Our holy Religion requires us to fear God, and honour the King; and we are convinced, that then only we can enjoy true Liberty when we steadfastly adhere to Religion and to the Laws of our Country.

With Pleasure we assure your Majesty, that these Principles prevail among the different Ranks of People committed to our Charge; and it shall ever be our Endeavour to cherish them to the utmost of our Power.

That the great Sovereign of Heaven and Earth may bless and long preserve your sacred Majesty, our most gracious Queen, and all the Royal Family; and that, under your Majesty's paternal Care, the Dignity of Government, and the Blessings of our most excellent Constitution, may stand secure against the Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the wild Efforts of factious and designing Men, is and ever shall be our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Synod at Ayr, this 13th of April, 1769, by David Shaw, Moderator.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Selkirk, has been presented to His Majesty by John Pringle, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Impressed, as we are, with the liveliest Sense of the Duty and Loyalty we owe your Majesty for the full Enjoyment of our Civil and Religious Liberties under your Majesty's mild and constitutional Government, we cannot but lament that so many of our Fellow-Subjects should be so far misled by the false Pretences of disappointed, desperate, and seditious Men, as to apprehend their Liberties to be in Danger under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

We hope the Mask will soon be pulled off these pretended Patriots, and then your People will clearly see and detest their Deceivers.

We should be wanting to the Duty we owe to the best of Kings, and to our Country, if we did not, on this Occasion, express to your Majesty our most sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and, at the same Time, declare our entire Disapprobation of every Attempt to diffuse a Spirit of Riot and Disobedience to the Laws, and all legal Authority, well knowing Law and Liberty must lie interred in the same Grave.

In Defence of these invaluable Blessings, and of your most sacred Person, so interesting to every undeluded Briton, we will cheerfully sacrifice every Thing that is dear to us.

These are the Principles which shall invariably animate and direct our Conduct

Will. Scott, Preses.

The three following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by George Dempster, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Fife, met at Cupar the 12th of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Conscious of the Worth and Importance of our happy Constitution, Civil and Sacred, established by Law, and animated with the warmest Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, under whose auspicious Reign we enjoy the Sweets of unmoled Liberty, the most valuable of all earthly Blessings, we cannot forbear testifying our Abhorrence of every Measure that has the most remote Tendency to affront Majesty, insult the Legislative Power, or weaken the Authority of a Government, calculated in every Respect to make us free and happy People.—It is with the deepest Regret we observe, in some late Instances, even in the Capital of Great-Britain, a Spirit of Tumult and Disorder raised and propagated by designing Men, who, under the Pretence of Liberty, countenance Riot and Sedition, subversive of all Peace and Order.—With Pleasure we can inform your sacred Majesty, that the great Body of the People under our Inspection breathe another Spirit, and, warmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Government, do view the present licentious Humour with just Indignation.—And your Majesty may believe, that the Ministers and Elders of this Province have nothing more at Heart than to inspire our People with the purest Sentiments of Religion, and to confirm them in the Principles of Loyalty to the best of Kings, and a dutiful Submission to the Laws of our happy Constitution, the only Security, under God, of our Civil and Religious Liberties.

That your sacred Majesty may long live and reign the Father of your People, the Pattern of Virtue and Religion, the Defender of Liberty and the Constitution, and, after a prosperous Reign on Earth, be at last, through Jesus our Saviour, admitted to the Regions of eternal Peace, is the earnest Wish and Prayer of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this Province.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Roger Moodie, Moderator.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burrow of Cupar in Fife, beg Leave to testify to your Majesty our unshaken Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government; to acknowledge, with grateful Hearts, the Security and Happiness we enjoy under your mild and legal Government, and the just Sense we have of your fatherly Regard and Care of all your Subjects, even the most undeserving. How happy would our Forefathers have thought themselves, to have lived under a King, who rules alone by the Laws, and who vies with the most zealous of his Subjects in the Love of Liberty, and Desire of preserving the Constitution upon the most liberal Principles of Freedom. With what Abhorrence must all Lovers of their Country look upon these wicked and evil-designing Men, who, for selfish Ends, blow the Flame of Sedition, and attempt to disturb a Reign, freight with every Blessing necessary to make your People happy.—We hope your Majesty's steady and wise Councils will frustrate all these Designs, establish the Publick Tranquillity, and secure the due Course of Justice. In so far as depends upon us, we will do our utmost to cherish and promote these Sentiments of Loyalty, which prevail in the Hearts of your Subjects of this Burrow; and will never ourselves be wanting in the Support of your Majesty's Government, under which alone we consider our Lives, Properties, and Liberties to be in Safety.

By Appointment of the Council,
John Baxter, Provost.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Burgeses, of your Majesty's Royal Burgh of Dundee.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under the most benign and propitious of Governments; and filled with Gratitude for the Preservation of our

Laws and Constitution, which have been so evidently the particular Care of your just and mild Administration, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere and most respectful Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

It is with Abhorrence we observe the sacred Name of Liberty prostituted, by some of our Fellow-Subjects, to the basest of Purposes, to excite a Spirit of lawless Riot and Licentiousness: These Proceedings, which are daring Insults to your Royal Person, and threaten the Subversion of our envied Constitution, we respectfully beg Leave to express our Detestation of; and to assure your Majesty, that it is our invariable Resolution ever to behave ourselves as loyal Subjects to so gracious a King; and, as much as in our Power, to advance the Quiet and Honour of your Reign; and to support the Interest of your illustrious Family.

Signed by Appointment of the Town-Council,
George Maxwell, Provost.

The two following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by Mr. Dixon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, Dean of Guild, and Council of the Borough of Peebles, in Council assembled, on Monday the 10th Day of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ANimated by a Sense of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person, we see and feel, with the utmost Concern and Abhorrence, the most daring Attempts of Licentiousness carried on at the Gates of your Palace by the deluded Multitude, Tools of factious and designing Men, who have prostituted the sacred Name of Liberty to their base and seditious Purposes.

Permit us, Sire, as a Testimony of our Duty and steady Attachment to your Royal Person, to assure you, that we will, by every Exertion in our Power, support the Dignity and Honor of your Reign, preserve Publick Tranquillity and the Stability of Government.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Council, with the Seal of the Borough appended, Francis Russell, Provost.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Common-Council, and Community of the Burgh of Lanark, assembled in their Council Hall on the 18th Day of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Common-Council, and Community of the Burgh of Lanark, truly sensible of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Administration, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the riotous and licentious Behaviour, which has of late appeared among some of your Majesty's deluded Subjects.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever retain the most cordial Affection and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; that it is our fixed Resolution to oppose every Thing that may tend to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majesty's Reign; and to promote, as far as in us lies, the Glory and Happiness of the best of Kings.

Signed by Appointment,
Rob. Bell, Provost.

Florence, April 15. Before the Great Duke left Rome, the Cardinals in a Body sent him a Present, consisting of a Piece of the Holy Cross, richly adorned with Figures and Instruments of the Crucifixion, in Gold, weighing Sixteen Pounds; Four Cases, with the Prints of the Churches and principal pal Buildings of Rome, and Two Pictures of Mo-

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
February 25, 1769.

Whereas several Persons, who were appointed Agents for the Sale of Prizes taken from the Enemy by His Majesty's Ships during the late War, and for the Distribution of Bounty-Money to the Companies of such of the said Ships as were entitled thereto, have neglected to transmit to the Treasurer of this Hospital, or to his Deputy, an Account of the Produce and Payment of such Prizes and Bounty-Money, and to pay over the forfeited and unclaimed Shares thereof, agreeable to the Acts of Parliament in that Case made and provided: This is therefore to give Notice, that the Directors of this Hospital are determined to proceed, with the utmost Severity of the Law, against all such Persons as shall any longer neglect or refuse to send in their Accounts to the said Treasurer or his Deputy, and to pay over the Amount of such forfeited and unclaimed Shares, as aforesaid.
