St. James's, May 23.

THE three following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by Lord Panmure, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, assembled at Forfar the 29th Day of April, 1769.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

HAVING observed, with the deepest Regret, that a Spirit of Sedition, Riot, and Licentiousness, inconsistent with true Liberty, and dangerous to good Government, has for some Time disturbed the Tranquillity of your Majesty's mild and just Reign;

We esteem it our Duty to testify our entire Disapprobation of such Proceedings, and humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with the most respectful Assurances of our loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; with our determined Resolution to support legal Authority as much as in our Power, and to promote the Quiet, Prosperity, and Glory of your Reign.

Signed in our Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Northesk, Preses.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, met at Brechin the 25th Day of April, 1769, animated with a deep Sense of the Peace, Happiness, and Security we and all our Fellow-Subjects enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave, with the profoundest Humility, to approach your Throne, and to express, in the strongest Terms, our Abhorrence of those detestable and pernicious Principles with which a few dissolute and disappointed Men have endeavoured to poison the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, both in your Metropolis and in other Parts of your extensive Dominions. While we enjoy the Blessings of Liberty; circumscribed, not by arbitrary Will, but by Laws; Laws formed by common Consent for the Publick Good; while we live under a Sovereign who makes these Laws, in every Instance, the Rule of His Administration, and has no other Object but the Happiness of His People, we cannot help being amazed at the Insolence of those, who, having no Merit to intitle them to share in Publick Councils, have cast off all Subjection to legal Authority, have dared to insult their Prince, the Magistrates, and the Laws, and to thrust themselves forward into Power, have solicited the Assistance of the Rabble, that, mounted upon their Shoulders, they may safely bid Defiance to Authority, and take the Direction of Publick Measures entirely into their own Hands.

It gives us real Pain to think, that for these Purposes they should have prostituted the sacred Name of Liberty, and added to it that of one, by whom the most wicked Endeavours have been used to lessen the good Understanding, which, throughout a Course of not few Years, and beyond the Example of former Times, has so happily subsisted betwixt the different Parts of this Island. At the same Time, we are happy to find, that this Spirit of Turbulence and Sedition has not been able to diffuse itself to any considerable Distance from the Spot where it first appeared; but that your Majesty's Subjects, sensible of the inestimable Advantages they enjoy under your Royal Care, feel in their Breasts the warmest Detestation of those Measures which have been audaciously used to disturb the Tranquillity of your Government, and the Happiness of your peaceable Subjects.

We have the Pleasure to assure your Majesty, that this is the genuine Disposition of those with whom we are particularly connected; and we should think ourselves greatly wanting in the Duty and Affection we owe to the best of Kings, if we did not take every Method in our Power to cultivate and promote it.

Unsollicitd by any of ManKind, we beg Leave to lay these our native, undisguised Sentiments at your Royal Feet; and, while we take Care to guard the Minds of our People from the Seduction of false, pretended Patriots, who, under the specious Pretext of Liberty, set themselves in Opposition to Law and Government, we shall never cease offering up our most ardent Prayers to the Throne of Grace, that He who is the King of Kings, who only can bring Order out of Confusion, and stay the unsettled Minds of the Multitude, may bless your Majesty with a long, prosperous and peaceable Reign; may pour down His best Blessings upon Her Majesty the Queen, and upon all the Princes and Princesses of your Royal Family; and that there may never be wanting an Heir in the Illustrious House of Hanover, to fill the Throne of Great Britain to the latest Posterity.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Synod of Angus and Mearns, by

Geo. Blair, Moderator.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechine, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

HAPPY in the full Enjoyment of our Properties and Privileges, secured to us by the most salutary Laws, and envied Constitution of our Country, we cannot but observe, with the utmost Concern and Regret, a Spirit of Licentiousness, Riot, and Sedition, prevailing amongst some of your Majesty's Subjects in the Capital of your Kingdom, and even at the very Gates of your Royal Residence, whereby the Seat of Government has been insolently disturbed, the Security of the Laws most audaciously violated, and the Lives of your Majesty's loyal Subjects greatly endangered; at a Juncture too, when they were attempting to express the warmest Effusions of their Gratitude for the Blessings they enjoy under the best of Princes, and the most affectionate Father of his People.

How impiously and wantonly do these Disturbers of the publick Tranquillity avail themselves of the Cry of Liberty, and call its sacred Name to their Aid? (The Licentiousness of their own Conduct pulls off the Mask, and their Practice exhibits their Principles in their native Colours.) — Our Forefathers, when struggling for the Establishment of their lawful lawful Rights and Privileges, considered the Security of the Laws, and regular Government, as the sole Security of their Civil Liberty.—We their Posterity, equally inspired with a Veneration for the Laws of our Country, most heartily condemn the wicked Attempts of those, who under Pretences equally false and pernicious, prosecute Measures subversive of all good Government, and legal Authority.

Prompted therefore by Loyalty and Affection, we cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of expressing our most ardent Wishes for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person, the Dignity of your Crown, and the Prosperity of your Government; and of assuring your Majesty, that we look with Indignation on every Attempt that has a Tendency to infringe the Laws, or disturb the publick Repose; and that it is our firm Resolution to support your Majesty to the utmost of our Power, in the Exertion of such Measures as your Royal Wisdom shall suggest, for suppressing the licentious Spirit of designing Men, securing the publick Tranquillity, and enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws.

May it therefore please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
the Magistrates and Council of your City of Brechin.

Signed in Prefence and by our Appointment,
John Melison, jun. Provost.

The following Address of the Rector, Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Rector, Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Rector, Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with the rest of your Majesty's good Subjects, to approach the Throne; and to assure your Majesty, that we bear the most inviolable Allegiance to your Person, Family, and Government; that we love and admire your many Christian and Royal Virtues; and that we are zealously attached to the Liberties and Constitution of Great Britain.

We have seen these Kingdoms, under your Majesty's Influence, exalted to the highest Pitch of Prosperity and Grandeur that Wealth and Conquest can attain. We have seen, with peculiar Satisfaction, your Majesty's unwearied Assiduity, in securing, to all your Subjects, their invaluable Rights and Liberties, Religious and Civil; in promoting, both by Command and by Example, that Righteousness which is the true Glory of a Nation; and in discouraging, by every Method which Piety and Prudence can suggest, that Wickedness which is the Reproach of any People. We cherished the pleasing Hope, that, by the Blessing of Heaven upon your Majesty's Endeavours, a happy Reformation of Manners would take Place among all Ranks of your Subjects, and that the whole British Empire would soon be as eminent for Publick and Private Virtue, as for Commercial and Military Glory.

We cannot therefore, without Regret and Indignation, see your Majesty's gracious Purposes counteracted, the Glory of these your Kingdoms contaminated, and the publick Tranquillity subverted, by turbulent, selfish, and impious Men; who, by Arts truly diabolical, have, for some Time past, been labouring to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects from your Person and Government, and from one another; and to diffuse a Spirit of Discord, Profligacy, and Sedition, destructive of all Liberty, Security, and good Order; and who have of late become so daring, as not only to threaten and attack the Lives of some of your Majesty's most respectable Subjects, but even repeatedly to insult all the Branches of the British Legislature. However we may be disposed to pity the Infatuation of a deluded Populace, we will ever hold the Instigators of these rebellious Tumults in utter Detestation.

It shall be our constant Endeavour to inspire the Youth, under our Care, with the Love of Truth, Virtue, and Religion; and with Zeal for our Liberties and excellent Constitution, to which Despotism and Licentiousness would prove equally fatal; and to impress upon their Minds an affecting Sense of the many important Blessings derived to us from the Glorious Revolution, and maintained for us by your Majesty's most Illustrious House. That Peace and good Order may speedily be restored to these Kingdoms; that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy; and that your Descendants, ambitious to imitate your Royal Virtues, may sway the British Sceptre to the latest Posterity, is our earnest and daily Prayer.

Marischal College and University of Aberdeen,

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Province of Aberdeen has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Province of Aberdeen, in full Synod assembled at Aberdeen the 12th Day of April, 1769.

May it please your Majesty,

Permit us, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, to express those Sentiments of Loyalty, which are due to a Sovereign, whose Piety and whose Virtues we venerate, and whom we regard with Gratitude and Affection, as the faithful Guardian of our excellent Constitution, our Liberties, and our Laws.

The Sentiments of our Hearts lead us to observe, with equal Astonishment and Indignation, many of our Fellow-Subjects insensible of the Blessings which we securely enjoy under your Majesty's just Administration, and yielding to a Spirit of Faction and Riot, artfully raised by interested and designing Men, on Purpose to promote their own sinister Views. We prize our Liberty as our Birth-right; and, persuaded that it cannot subsist where Laws are not esteemed sacred, we detest, as its most dangerous Enemy, that Licentiousness which assumes its Name, and under that Colour tramples upon Laws and Order. When we see the Spirit of Sedition audaciously aspersing the most respectable Characters, obstructing the Administration of Justice, traducing the most necessary Measures of Government, insulting the Legislature of the Nation, violating the sacred and darling Privilege of the Subjects Access to the Throne, and, in the Attempt to violate it, carrying Tumult and Confusion to the very Gates of the Royal Palace, we are filled with Concern for the Delusion of so many of the People, and with anxious Solicitude for all that we hold dear and valuable. Conscious that Religion and Virtue are essential to the Prosperity of every Nation, we reflect with Sorrow on the Depravation of Morals, and the Want of Religious Principle, which the Licentiousness of the present Time appears to us to indicate, and which it has the strongest Tendency to increase.

It gives us sincere Pleasure to be able to assure your Majesty, that ourselves, and the People under our Care, regard every Attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Government, with Abhorrence. While we rely, with perfect Confidence, on your Royal Wisdom and Paternal Care, for such Administration of Government as is fit to promote the publick Good, it shall be our Business to inculcate the Principles of pure Christianity, the firmest Foundations of Obedience to the Laws, and the strongest Supports of true Liberty; to enforce Loyalty to a King, the Happiness of whose Family is strictly connected with the Security of all those Rights and Privileges, which are dear to us as Men, Christians, and Protestants; and to pray fervently, that the God of Heaven may not be provoked to deprive us of those Blessings, which many so wantonly abuse; that he may grant your Majesty a long and glorious Reign on Earth, and an everlasting Crown in Heaven; and that Princes of your illustrious House may sway the British Sceptre to latest Ages.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, by Alex. Johnston, Moderator.
