St. James's, May 27.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude for the Blessings we so fully enjoy in all our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. Thus blessed with the best of Kings, we cannot, without Astonishment and Indignation, observe the many repeated Tumults and Seditions that have lately disturbed the Peace of your Capital, and almost invaded your Royal Presence, led on and fomented by a Set of desperate, ill-designing Men, who, under the specious Pretence and sacred Name of Liberty, seek only, for their own private Views and Purposes, to raise a Spirit of Discord, Tumult, and Faction among your faithful Subjects, in open Defiance of Justice and legal Authority, and the Violation of the Peace and good Order of Government, so happily established under your Majesty's Royal Protection.

Alarmed at these daring and dangerous Proceedings, equally repugnant to the Dignity of the Crown, the Authority of the Laws, and the Peace and Safety of the Subject, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we shall ever retain the most inviolable Esteem and Veneration to your Royal Person and Government, and always exert our utmost Endeavours, in our several Stations, to cherish and promote, in all Ranks among us, a true Spirit of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, of Confidence and Trust in the Legislature, of Reverence and Submission to the Laws, and Peace, good Order, and Tranquility amongst ourselves.
