

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 30, to Saturday June 3, 1769.

At the Court at St. James's, the 26th Day of May, 1769,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to permit the Free Importation of certain Raw Hides and Skins from Ireland and the British Plantations in America, for a limited Time; and for taking off the Duties upon Seal Skins tanned or tawed in this Kingdom, and for granting another Duty in Lieu thereof; for indemnifying all Persons with respect to advising or executing any of His Majesty's Orders of Council prohibiting the Importation of Raw Hides, Horns and Hoofs of Infected Cattle; and to authorize the Prohibition of the Importation of such Hides, Horns and Hoofs for the Future," His Majesty is empowered, from Time to Time, as often as he shall find it necessary so to do, by His Royal Proclamation to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, to prohibit generally, or from any particular Country or Countries, the Importation of any Hides or Skins, Horns or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, for such Time or Times to be therein mentioned, and under such Rules, Orders and Regulations as His Majesty, by the Advice aforesaid, shall judge most expedient and effectual to prevent any Contagious Distemper from being brought into these Kingdoms.— And whereas His Majesty hath received Information, that the Contagious Distemper continues to rage amongst the Horned Cattle with great Violence in the Dominions of the Kings of Denmark and Sweden, in the Dutchies of Holstein, Mecklenburg and Cleves, in the Neighbourhood of Hamburg, and upon the Frontiers of the United Provinces, and also within the United Provinces:—His Majesty taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to prohibit the Importation of any Hides of Horned Cattle, either Raw or Salted, or Horns and Hoofs, from the Places aforesaid, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified. And His Majesty is further pleased, with the Advice aforesaid, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the utmost Care be taken not to permit any Entry to be passed for the Hides of Horned Cattle, either Raw or Salted, or Horns and Hoofs, which are already or may hereafter be brought from the Places aforesaid, directly or indirectly, into any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified.— And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

[Price Nine-Pence.]

St. James's, June 3.

The following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

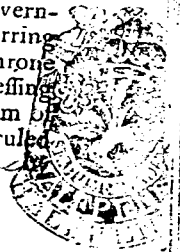

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland, consider it as our Duty, at this Juncture, to approach your Throne with the warmest Professions of our sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Family. As the Church of Scotland is indebted for its Preservation, in Times of Danger and Persecution, to the Divine Protection, it owes its Civil Establishment to the Principles of Liberty. Under the same illustrious Monarch who secured the Succession of the British Throne to the House of Hanover, the Protection of Law was obtained for the Church of Scotland; and the Members of this Church have uniformly distinguished themselves no less by the Love of Liberty, which the Genius of our Ecclesiastical Constitution tends to cherish, than by their Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, the faithful Guardians of the Rights of their People.

Animated with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to our Sovereign, we embrace the first Opportunity that hath offered to us of expressing our hearty Concern at that Spirit of Licentiousness, and those unhappy Dissensions, which have disturbed your Majesty in the Seat of your Government, and begin now to alarm the Minds of good Citizens in the most remote Parts of your Dominions. Fully sensible of your Majesty's paternal Goodness, and constant Endeavours to promote the Public Happiness, we cannot sufficiently lament that this gracious Purpose should be obstructed by any Part of your Subjects.

It is however with much Satisfaction that we assure your Majesty, that the great Body of the People under our Care, sensible of the Blessings which they enjoy under your auspicious Reign, are actuated with Zeal for our happy Constitution, and with Respect and Love for their gracious Sovereign. No Pains shall be wanting on our Part to cherish and improve those happy Dispositions. At the same Time that we inculcate upon them a supreme Reverence for the Doctrines and Precepts of Christianity, we will omit no Opportunity of impressing them with Loyalty to our King, Veneration for the Constitution, and Obedience to the Laws of our Country.

We offer, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, our Prayers to Almighty God, that He may long preserve your Majesty to be the Guardian of our Civil and Religious Rights; that He may comfort your Heart under the Cares and Burdens of Government, and guide your Councils by His unerring Wisdom; that there may ever surround the Throne Men of approved Ability and Integrity, possessing the Confidence of their Sovereign and the Esteem of their Fellow-Subjects; and that these Lands, ruled by your Majesty and your Royal Descendants, may continue to the latest Ages to be the happy Seat of Religion, Liberty, and the valuable Arts of Life, are and shall be the constant Prayers of,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Macknight, Moderator.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Moray, from a just Sense of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, think ourselves called on, and beg Leave at this Season, to approach your Royal Presence with sincere Professions of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government; and to express our just Abhorrence of that Spirit of Riot and Licentiousness, which, under the specious Name of Liberty, has unhappily betrayed so many of our Fellow-Subjects into Practices so subversive of all Order and good Government.

Permit us, Sir, to assure your Majesty, that we will not fail to exert our unwearied Endeavours to inspire the People under our Care with these Sentiments of Piety, Loyalty and Duty, which are the just Expression of our Gratitude, and the best Return in our Power, for the many Blessings we enjoy under a Prince, who has ever accounted the Happiness of His People the End of Government.

That your Majesty's valuable and important Life may be long preserved; that, in Return for your Care and Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, they may vie with one another in contributing to your Majesty's Glory here; and that you may be rewarded with eternal Felicity hereafter, is and ever will be the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Moray.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of Synod,
Lewis Gordon, Moderator.
Forres, April 26, 1769.

To His most Sacred Majesty the King.

The dutiful Address of the Provincial Synod of Galloway.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Galloway, met in their Provincial Synod, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and, amidst these intestine Broils and Commotions that at present disturb the Nation, to declare the sincere Sentiments and Feelings of our Hearts.

Truly sensible of the many inestimable Privileges and Blessings, both Civil and Sacred, that we enjoy under your Majesty's benign and auspicious Government, we see, with Astonishment and Indignation, a Spirit of the most insolent and audacious Licentiousness, manifestly calculated to mislead the Minds and alienate the Affections of a free and happy People; and fomented by Measures the most seditious and inflammatory, destructive of the publick Tranquillity, and subversive of all Civil Government.

It is with much Pleasure and great Truth that we assure your Majesty, that not only we, who are employed in the Sacred Ministry, but all Ranks and Degrees of Persons residing within our Bounds, do most heartily detest and abhor all these base, pestilential Riots and Tumults, and all their malignant Authors and Abettors; and as it is our manifest Duty, so it is the steady Purpose and Resolution of our Hearts, to inculcate and promote, to the utmost of our Power, the genuine Spirit of the Gospel, which enjoins and enforces, in the strictest Manner, a high Veneration for Kings, and due Subjection to all legal Authority; and we are ever ready, at the Expence of every Thing dear and valuable to us, to support your Majesty's Family and Government.

That the King of Heaven may bless your Majesty, our Gracious Queen, and all your August Family; direct all your Councils, and felicitate your Reign, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Galloway.

In their Name, in their Presence, and by their Appointment, signed at Wigton the 25th Day of April, 1769, by Eben. Stott, Moderator.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Town-Council, and Community of the Burgh of Irvine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts full of Affection and Gratitude for the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign, warmed with the highest Regard for your Majesty's Person and Government, cannot fail to express a just Abhorrence of the ungrateful and detestable Conduct of some of our Fellow-Subjects, who abuse and pervert the Happiness they possess under your mild and equitable Administration to the Purposes of Licentiousness, Sedition, and Disorder. While we pity the Blindness and Folly of the infatuated and deluded Mob, we rejoice that their insolent and seditious Practices are only encouraged and abetted by those who are unworthy of the Name, of the Happiness of British Subjects. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be ever our Study to cultivate the most unfeigned Affection and Loyalty to your sacred Person and Family, to maintain a due Submission to the wise and good Laws of our Country, to preserve the Tranquillity of your Government, and oppose any Attempt to disturb the Felicity we enjoy under the happiest Constitution and the best of Princes.

By Order of the Council,

Char. Hamilton, Provost.
