Madrid, July 27.

THE Court have been at St. Ildephonso some Days.

Don Antonio de Ufioa was a few Days ago made Chef d'Escadre.

Vienna, July 29. The Emperor arrived at Schonbrunn this Morning about Nine o'Clock in perfect Health.

St. James's, August 15, 1769.

It having been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of Thursday the 27th of July last, betwixt the Hours of Eleven and Twelve, the Hon. James Drummond was attacked in the Street of the Exchange of Edinburgh, near the Foot of Niddry's Wynd, by Three or Four Persons, who came up behind him, and Two of them having seized him by the Arms, a Third demanded his Money, and attempted to pull out his Watch; that, upon Mr. Drummond's making Resistance, the same Person stabbed him in the Breast with a Penknife, or some other small sharp Instrument, six or Seven different Times, by which the said Knife or Instrument was broke, and Part thereof was afterwards extracted from his Wounds; but Mr. Drummond having disengaged his Arms from the Two Persons who held him, made several Strokes at the Assailants with a Stick that he had in his Hand, and at last drove them altogether without being robbed; that Mr. Drummond had a smart Fever upon him for some Time, but by having his Wounds immediately washed, and proper Care taken about him, he is now out of Danger: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons in the said Attack, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Favour to any one or more of them, who shall discover him or their Accomplices, (except the Person who did actually stab Mr. Drummond) so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROCHFORD.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Lord Provost and Magistrates of the said City of Edinburgh do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery, except the Person who did actually stab the said Mr. Drummond, as aforesaid.

James Stuart, Provost.

Whitehall, August 8, 1769.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that betwixt Nine in the Evening of Tuesday the 18th, and Two in the Afternoon of Wednesday the 19th of July last, a Desk in the Writing-Chamber of John Davidsson, Writer to the Signet, Castlehill, Edinburgh, was opened by some wicked Person or Persons unknown, by a counterfeit Key as is supposed, (as the Desk was again locked) and sundry Bank Notes taken out thereof, to the Amount of Three Hundred and Sixty-seven Pounds Sterling; and amongst the Notes, there was one of the Old Bank, or Bank of Scotland, for One Hundred Pounds: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the above Crime, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, (except the Person principally concerned) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Crime, so as that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROCHFORD.

And, for a further Encouragement, the said John Davidsson hereby offers a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS Sterling to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery, so as the Offender may be convicted and the Money restored.

John Davidsson.

East India House, August 11, 1769.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday next the 16th Instant, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon till Six in the Evening, for the Determination, by Ballot, of the following Question, viz.

That it is the Opinion of this Court, that the Bailance unpaid to the Claimants on the Restitution Fund be paid in Bengal so soon as the State of the Company's Treasury will admit."

East-India House, July 20, 1769.

Whereas sundry Goods, consisting of Muslins, Callicees, Tea, Pepper, Drugs, Arrack, China Ware, and other Goods, which have lain for a great Number of Years in the East-India Company's Bay, Coast and Surat, Pepper and Private Trade Warehouses, and should remain unclaimed or uncleared on the 28th of this instant July, were appointed to be sold on Thursday the 3d and Friday the 4th of August next; The Court of Directors of the said Company do hereby give Notice, that the said Goods may be inspected and viewed at the respective Warehouses every Working-Day until the 18th of August next, by all Persons who apprehend they may be concerned therein: And they further give Notice, that all such of the said Goods, as are not, on or before the said 18th of August, claimed or cleared, will be resold at the Company's Candle, viz.

Those which have been sold on the Company's Account, instead of Thursday the 3d, on Wednesday the 23d; and Those which have been sold in Private Trade, instead of Friday the 4th, on Thursday the 24th of August next.
