

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 29, to Saturday September 2, 1769.

St. James's, August 26, 1769.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That, about Eight Months ago, the Ship Black Prince, William Hawkins Master, belonging to Mr. John Forwker and others, Merchants in Bristol, sailed from the Port of Bristol, bound to Old Callabar on the Coast of Africa, having on Board about Forty-four Persons, Boys included; that, about Two Months after they left Bristol, being within a Week's Sail from the Coast, about Thirty of the Crew, (most of whom are described in the following List) mutinied, and bound the Captain and Chief Mate, and put them, together with the Second and Third Mates, the Surgeon and his Mate, the Boatswain, the Cooper, one Foremast-Man, and the Cabbin-Boy, and some Necessaries and Provisions, into the Ship's Boat, and sent them off; after which they changed the Name of the Black Prince to that of the Liberty, and painted her Head black; then sailed for the Brazils, and coming to Siara, they sold Part of the Cargo; at which Place, while Part of the Crew were ashore, those on Board cut the Cable, and after Firing several Shot into the Town, gave Chase to a Schooner, which however escaped from them; that, soon after this, they tried the Cook, Allen McCoy, by a pretended Court-Martial, condemned and hanged him; and afterwards put in at Crab Island, where, seeing a Sail to Leeward, they chased her, but the People quitting their Vessel, and taking to their Boat, the Crew of the Black Prince did not board her, but sailed for the West-India Islands, and ran ashore at Petit Trou on the Island of Hispaniola, where the Spaniards took Care of them, and helped in Unloading the Ship; and all the Cargo, except the Iron, was taken out, and put under the Orders of the Governor.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of the Crew of the said Ship Black Prince, who were forced to become Accomplices in the said Offences, and who shall discover any of the principal Offenders, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any one of the Crew of the said Ship Black Prince, (who were forced to become Accomplices in the said Offences) or to any other Person or Persons, who shall discover any of the principal Offenders, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
