Admiralty Office, February 6, 1770.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That a Galliot called the Pieter Cats, of the Burthen of about 134 Tons, belonging to Leewarden in Friesland, whereof Harmen Harmens was Master, bound from Bourdeaux to Amsterdam, laden with Wine, having, for Want of an Observation, lost the Channel, and got into Bristol Channel, was lately drove on Shore on Aberavan Sands near Swansea in the County of Glamorgan; that the Wines have been landed, but that it was imagined the Ship would be lost.
