From Saturday April 14, to Tuesday April 17, 1770.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th Day of April, 1770,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, a Letter from Keith Urquhart, Sheriff Depute of the County of Banff in Scotland, to the Lord Justice Clerk, and a Copy of a Letter from Theophilus Ogilvie, Collector of the Customs at Aberdeen, to the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, containing Information, that an infectious Distemper had broke out amongst the Horned Cattle in and about the Town of Portfroy in the said County of Banff;—That the Sheriff Depute, and several of the Justices of the Peace of the said County, did, upon hearing thereof, meet together, to consider what was fit to be done; That, upon Enquiry, finding that the Infection was spreading, and that Cattle belonging to several different Persons, had died of the Distemper, they came to the Resolution of ordering all the Cattle in and about the Town of Portfroy to be appretiated, and to order them to be killed and buried, after giving Assurance to the Owners of an Indemnification for the Loss of their Cattle; and that their Orders had been accordingly carried into Execution, by killing and burying the Number of One Hundred and Forty-two Cattle;—That the said Sheriff Depute and Justices of the Peace, did hire proper Persons to watch and prevent all Cattle from being brought into the Town, and did give the necessary Directions to cleanse the Cow-houses, and other Places where the infected Cattle had been;—That there was Reason to believe the Infection had been brought from Holland in the Packages of uncustomed or prohibited Goods, which had been smuggled into that Part of the Kingdom.—And whereas by an Act passed in this present Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons with respect to Advising or Carrying into Execution His Majesty's Orders of Council made for preventing the Spreading of a contagious Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle, and for rendering the same valid and effectual, and for preventing Suits in consequence thereof, and to authorize the continuing, extending, and executing the same for a further Time;" His Majesty is empowered, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to extend His Orders issued upon the seventh and fourteenth Days of December last, for preventing the Spreading of the said infectious Distemper in the County of Southampton, to all such Counties and Places in Great-Britain, as His Majesty, in His great Wisdom, shall judge most expedient and effectual to prevent the Spreading of such infectious Distemper;—His Majesty, taking the said Letters into Consideration, and approving the Steps already taken, is graciously pleased to confirm the Assurance given to the Owners of the Cattle which have been killed, of an Indemnification; and His Majesty, deeming it of the utmost Importance that such further Steps should be taken, as may appear to be necessary to prevent the Spreading of the said infectious Distemper, that has already broke out, or may hereafter break out, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Sheriff Depute, or Substitute in the County of Banff, do call a Meeting of the Justices of the Peace of the said County of Banff, to be held in the Town of Portfroy, or at any convenient Place near thereto; and that the said Sheriff Depute, or Substitute, and Justices of the Peace so assembled, the Number of Justices not being less than three, do ascertain the value of the Cattle already killed, from the Appretiations made of them, or in any other Manner that to them may appear the most proper, for discovering the just Value thereof, and of the Expence unavoidably incurred in preventing the Spreading of the Distemper; and that they do make up an Account thereof, and certify the same by a Writing under their Hands, the Sheriff Depute or Substitute being always one who shall subscribe the said Writing.—And it is further ordered, that the said Sheriff Depute or Substitute, and any three or more of the said Justices of Peace of the said County of Banff, or the Sheriff Depute or Substitute, and any three or more of the Justices of Peace of any other County in Scotland, within which the said Infectious Distemper shall appear, may meet together and order such Steps to be taken, as to them shall seem the most likely to stop and prevent the Spreading of the said Distemper, where it is now broke out, or where it may hereafter break out, by the due Execution of the following Directions; particularly if they judge it necessary to buy up all Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers, and Heifers, whether infected or not, in those Places within which, in their Judgment, the Infection shall have broke out or spread to, at a Price not exceeding their fair and full Value, to be ascertained by the Report of two or more Persons, whom they shall appoint to appretiate the said Cattle upon Oath; and to give Orders, that the Cattle, so bought and appretiated, shall be immediately killed, and their Carcasses and Hides buried and treated in all Respects in the Manner prescribed by an Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the 22d of March 1747. And in Case there should be any Owner or Owners of Cattle, so regardless of the Publick Welfare, as to refuse to sell such their Cattle at the Prices which they shall be appretiated at, that the said Sheriff Depute or Sheriff Substitute, and any three or more Justices of the Peace of the County, may cause such Cattle to be nevertheless killed and treated as aforesaid.—But His Majesty is pleased to declare, That it is not intended that the Powers contained in the said Order of the 22d of March 1747, should be revived by this present Order, other than those which regard the Treating

[Price Three-Pence.]

Treating of the Cattle when killed, and the Preventing the Driving or Removing any Horned Cattle, that shall be within the Compass of one Mile of any Infected Place, unless from one Pasture to another, or to Water, or for the Purpose of Slaughtering such Cattle; and that such Cattle be not, on any Pretence whatsoever, permitted to be removed farther than one Mile from such Infected Place— And it is further ordered, That the Sheriff Deputes or Substitutes, and Justices, who may meet for the Purpose of Executing these His Majesty's Orders, shall at such Meetings from Time to Time, make up a distinct Account of the Cattle voluntarily sold by the Owners, and of the Cattle that shall be killed without the Owners Consent, from the Appretiations to be made of them in the Manner before directed, and of all such unavoidable Expence incurred in Executing their Directions for preventing the Spreading of the said Distemper; and after certifying the Amount thereof by a Writing under their Hands, the Sheriff Depute or Substitute being always one who certifies the same, shall transmit the said Accounts, Certificates, and Appretiations, to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and shall communicate from Time to Time to this Board, what they shall have done in Obedience to this Order—And His Majesty, with the like Advice of His Privy Council, hereby orders the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to issue such Sums from Time to Time as may be necessary to pay all Charges and Expences occasioned by the Execution of this Order, and that shall be certified to them in Manner before directed.

Steph. Cottrell.

Rome, March 17. The Pope has induced the Senate of Venice to admit M. del Bono as his Consul at Venice.

Cardinal Bernis, in an Audience of the Pope, notified to him, on the Part of the King his Master, that he had immediately caused the Indulto for the Jubilee to be remitted to the Bishops of the Kingdom, in order to be published in their respective Dioceses.

The Pope, on Notice that the King of Prussia had condescended to permit the Archbishop of Prague to visit the Churches in the County of Glatz, has directed the Abbé Ciofani, his Prussian Majesty's Agent, to convey to him his Acknowledgments for this Act of Condescension.

On the 12th Instant the Pope held a Consistory, in which he filled up several vacant Archbishopricks in France, Italy, and Spain; amongst which was that of Valencia, to M. Aspuru, the Spanish Minister at this Court; for which the Pope, out of a personal Regard for M. Aspuru, has granted a Dispensation for the Payment of about 1200 Crowns, the Fees due to the Datary, on his Promotion to that Benefice.

On the 14th the following Books were, by Order of the Inquisition, burnt by the Hangman, viz. 1. The Philosophical Works de la Meune, printed at Amsterdam in 1753. 2. A Book, intituled Les Colmiacons, containing divers Letters, without Date or Place of Impression. 3. An Abstract of the Ecclesiastical History, published under a feigned Name of Fleury; printed at Berne in 1766. And 4. Reflections of an Italian upon the Church in general, on the Regular and Secular Clergy, on the Bishops and the Popes, and upon the Ecclesiastical Rights of Princes; printed at Borgo Francone in 1768.

Florence, March 24. In the last Week two Barbary Horses were sent to Madrid by the Great Dutchess, as a Present to the Prince of Asturias, her Brother, for the Introduction of Horse Races in Spain.

On the 13th at Noon the Great Duke, attended by the Counts Rosemberg and Thurn, returned here from the Excursion he had made to visit the Eastward Sea-Coast called the Maremma of Pisa, and likewise the Cecina Campiglia and its Terriere, those of Massa, the Alom Rocks of Monte Rotondo, Grosseto, and its adjacent Sea-Coast.

The 19th, being the Emperor's Name-Day, there was a Gala at Court; on which Occasion the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers complimented the Great Duke.

On the 20th Instant the Great Duke caused an Edict to be published, notifying to the Publick the Reduction from $3\frac{1}{2}$ to 3 per Cent. on the Publick Stocks called Luoghi di Monte, which is to take Place the 1st of April, offering to those that should decline to submit to that Reduction the Payment of their capital Sums by certain Portions at a Time.

Stockholm, March 27. Baron Bengt Sparre is set out this Day for Dresden, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to the Elector of Saxony.

Prince Charles's Journey to Aix la Chapelle has been prevented, by the violent Cold, from taking Place at the Time fixed, and is put off till the Weather is milder.

Count Frederick Sparre is made Councillor of the Chancery.

St. James's, April 16.

The King has been pleased to appoint Soame Jenyns, Edward Eliot, John Roberts, William Fitzherbert, Robert Spencer, (commonly called Lord Robert Spencer) George Greville, (commonly called Lord Greville) and William Northey, Esquires, to be Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

St. James's, April 14, 1770.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that two anonymous Incendiary Letters, the one dated March 29th, the other April 10th, 1770, and directed to the Dean of Westminster, have been received by him, repeatedly threatening, with most horrid Oaths and Imprecations, to set the said Dean's House and Stables on Fire, and to have his Life by the first Opportunity, if he does not make a Door for People to pass through Dean's Yard into St. Ann's Lane; (which is not in his Power to do, the Wall and Ground being the Property of other Persons;) and avowing, that they were the same Men who lately broke through a Wall there for that Purpose: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said incendiary Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letters) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Reverend the Dean of Westminster doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid by Mr. Benjamin Fidoe, Clerk of the Works at Westminster Abbey, on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Hardman, of Martock in the County of Somerset, Linendraper, Baker, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of his Estate and Effects, on the 26th Day of April instant, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Bush Tavern in Corn-Street, Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity for Recovery of any Part of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; and also to their compounding, submitting to Arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, any Matter or Thing relating thereto; and on other special Affairs
