St. James's, April 28, 1770.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on Monday Morning the 16th Instant, a threatening Letter was found on the Inside of the Window-Shutters of the Shop of Joshua Stancliffe, of Halifax in the West Riding of the County of York, Watch-maker, whereof the following is a Copy:

Halifax Apr^l 12 1770

Joshua

An Affair happened on Friday night last, which is of The utmost consequence to you, pray God Grant That you may take This friendly warning. otherwise you will be an undone man its a matter of no less moment Than The preservation of y.^r life. to speak plain with you There is an agreement entered upon by very near adozen to Take y.^r life. if David Hartley Suffers I durst not say any Thing against it. as They avowed, That who-soever dissented in That company should undergo — you may Guess what They are all Sworn upon the Bible to stand true besides They affirm That you deserve Shoating for some other Things which little becomes one in your profession — I am shocked at the Thoughts of This affair & was resolved to take This secret method to warn you of y.^r eminent danger. I could not with Safety do it any other way as I would certainly have been discovered & my life in danger as well as yours for its resolved & sworn as above to stand true to one another &c: & if you cannot be caught out of door at night its resolved upon to take a shorter method. my hand trembles while I write. wishing That God may give you Grace to take warning & in Time of This desperate affair so Joins yours unknown.
