From Tuesday July 31, to Saturday August 4, 1770.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, entitled, "An Act for registering the Prices at which Corn is sold in the several Counties of Great Britain, and the Quantity exported and imported," It was enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall, from Time to Time, appoint a fit Person to receive at the Treasury such Returns of the Prices of Corn, and of the Quantity exported and imported, as by the said Act are directed to be made; the first Appointment to be made before the first Day of August, 1770, and published Eight Times, at the least, in the London Gazette; Notice is therefore hereby given, in Pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have appointed William Cooke, Esq; to receive, at the Treasury, such Returns of the Prices of Corn, and of the Quantities exported and imported, as are directed by the said Act of Parliament.

Ile of Mann, July 14. On the 5th Instant, the Bishop of this Ile gave a Sermon in St. John's Chapel, as usual; and afterwards, at the Head of the Clergy, presented the following Address to the Governor; who, after answering their Address, proceeded with them to the Tynwald Hill, and went through the accustomed Ceremonies and Business of the Day, which gave the utmost Satisfaction to above Ten Thousand People present, and univversally to the whole Island; it being the first High Court of Tynwald that has been holden there since the said Island has been vested in His Majesty.

To his Excellency John Wood, Esq; Governor in Chief and Captain-General of the Island and Dominion of Mann, and the Dependencies thereof. The Humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon, and the rest of the Clergy of the Ile and Diocese of Sodor and Mann.

May it please your Excellency,
WE the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Ile and Diocese of Sodor and Mann, animated with the warmest Sentiments of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to the Person and Government of our Gracious Sovereign, and the highest Respect to your Excellency, embrace this Opportunity, at this First and Solemn Court of Tynwald, (since the Royalities of this Island were annexed to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain) to congratulate your Excellency on the Royal Favor of being commissioned His Majesty's Vicegerent in the Government of this Ile; and to felicitate this Island in general, on your Excellency's happy Appointment at the late Revolution; as no Circumstance could have been more favorable to the Peace and Happiness of the People committed to your Care at that Conjunction, than His Majesty's wise and seasonable Continuance of your Excellency to the Government of this Land, where your prudent and equable Administration, during several previous Years, had so justly endeared your Excellency to all the Inhabitants thereof.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to participate in the general Joy, this Day conspicuous in every Face, to see their ancient, supreme, constitutional, and so much wished for Court of Tynwald, restored to its former, or rather, superior Dignity and Importance, under your Excellency's wise and judicious Direction. And we beg Leave to assure your Excellency, that we shall, by a faithful Discharge of our Duty in our respective Stations, inculcate the strictest Principles of Loyalty and Duty to His Majesty, and cheerful Obedience to all those put in Authority under Him; and more especially shall offer up our earnest Supplications to the Throne of Grace, that the Supreme Director of all Things would extend the Blessings of Peace and Unity through this and every other Part of His Majesty's Dominions; that your Excellency's Rule over us may be long, prosperous, and happy; with Health, Honour, and Wisdom to discharge the arduous Duties of your Station; and that His Majesty may never want so faithful a Representative, the Church so sincere a Well-wisher, or this Island so acceptable a Governor.

Mark Sodor and Mann.
