AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of September, 1770,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order of Council of the 26th Day of May, 1769, to prohibit the Importation of any Hides of Horned Cattle either Raw or Salted, or Horns and Hoofs, from the Dominions of the Kings of Denmark and Sweden, the Dutchies of Holstein, Mecklenburgh and Clevés, the Neighbourhood of Hamburg, the Frontiers of the United Provinces, and the United Provinces: And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to prevent the further Spreading of the contagious Disorder among the Horned Cattle in Great Britain," His Majesty is empowered, amongst other Things, from Time to Time, as often as he shall find it necessary so to do, by His Royal Proclamation, to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, to prohibit generally, or from any particular Country or Countries, or from the Isles of Alderney, Jersey, Guernsey, or any of the Islands or Dominions belonging to Great Britain, the Importation of any Cattle, or of any Manner of Hides or Skins, Horns or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Islands or Dominions thereto belonging;—And whereas His Majesty hath received Information that the Contagion amongst the Horned Cattle hath broke out at a Village called Werlpen, between Furnes and Newport, about Four Leagues from Ostend, in Flanders; and is supposed to have come from the Side of Berg St. Wenox, about Two Leagues from Dunkirk, where it actually is; His Majesty taking the same into his Royal Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to prohibit the Importation of any Cattle, or of any Manner of Hides or Skins, Horns or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, from Dunkirk, or any other Part of Flanders, or from any of the Places mentioned in the aforesaid Order of the 26th of May, 1769, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified: And His Majesty is further pleased, with the Advice aforesaid, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the utmost Care be taken, not to permit any Entry to be passed, for any Cattle, or for any Manner of Hides or Skins, Horns or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, which are already, or may hereafter be brought from the Places aforesaid, directly or indirectly, into any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
