Whitehall, November 12, 1770.

BARON Nolcken, Envoy Extraordinary from his Swedish Majesty, having notified to me, by Order of his Court, that, on Account of the Plague raging in the Levant and in some Parts of Europe, no Ships or Travellers whatsoever would be admitted into the Ports or Frontiers of Sweden, without proper Bills of Health; this is to give Notice to all Owners and Masters of Ships, and others whom it may concern, that they may apply to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and to the Principal Officers of the Customs in the Outports, for such Bills of Health.

ROCHFORD.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th Day of November, 1770,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 11th Instant, to order, that for the better preventing the Infection, now raging at Constantinople and other Parts of the Levant, and in some Parts of Poland, from being brought into this Kingdom, all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, having Rags or Cotton-Wool on Board, which were then arrived, or should thereafter arrive, in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, should make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and should likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force, and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine. — And whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that several Ships are arrived, and others are expected to arrive, from America and the West Indies, with Cotton-Wool on Board, which Ships may be supposed liable to Quarantine by the aforementioned Order in Council — His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Doubts, and to prevent Obstructions upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Health and Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, that all Ships and Vessels already arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive, from America or the West Indies, with Rags or Cotton-Wool on Board, the Produce of those Places, be not laid under any Restraint whatsoever on Account of Quarantine. — And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

[Price Three-Pence.]

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th Day of November, 1770,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in His Privy Council.

WHEREAS James Rylatt, of Chappel-hill, in the Parish of Swineshead, in the Parts of Holland, in the County of Lincoln, Grazer, was, upon the Sixth Day of this Instant November, charged by Information of a credible Person upon Oath, by him subscribed, before Henry Butler Pacey, Esquire, and the Reverend John Calthrop, Clerk, two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Parts of Holland, in the said County of Lincoln, with having been guilty, on or about the Sixth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-nine, in the Night, of entering on Lands belonging to Charles Anderson Pelham, Esquire, late Part of Holland Fen, in the said Parts, allotted to the said Charles Anderson Pelham, by the Commissioners chosen to divide the said Fen, and there with a Gun loaded with Shot, unlawfully and maliciously shooting at some of the horned Cattle then grazing on the said Lands, which not doing the Execution intended, he the said James Rylatt, being on the said Lands, did then load the same Gun with Pebble Stones, with which Gun so loaded with Pebble Stones, he the said James Rylatt, being on the said Lands, did then and there unlawfully and maliciously shoot at the said Cattle so grazing on the said Lands, and by so shooting, he the said James Rylatt did kill one of the said Cattle so grazing on the said Lands as aforesaid; which Beast so killed was of the horned Kind, of a Red Colour, and either a Steer or Heifer; which Information was afterwards certified by the said Henry Butler Pacey, and John Calthrop, under their Hands and Seals, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who has laid the same before His Majesty in His Privy Council, pursuant to the Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, in that Case made and provided. His Majesty doth, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by this His Order in His Privy Council, require and command, that the said James Rylatt do and shall Surrender himself, within the Space of Forty Days, to one of the Justices of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to the End that he may be forthwith coming to answer the Offence wherewith he stands charged by the said Information, according to due Course of Law. And His Majesty is pleased further to order, as it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall be printed and published in the next London Gazette, and shall be forthwith transmitted to the Sheriff of the said County of Lincoln; and that the said Sheriff shall, within Six Days after the Receipt thereof, by himself or his Officers, proclaim the same Order, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon, in the Market-places, places, upon the respective Market-Days, of two Market-Towns in the said County of Lincoln, near to the Place where the said Offence was committed; and shall cause a true Copy of this Order to be affixed upon some public Place in each of such Market Towns, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act of Parliament, in that Case made and provided.
